Mrs. Pankhurst to Be Arrested

MILITANTS FLY TO ARMS

Will Wage War With Officials to Keep Her
Out of Jail

Charter Vessel to Undertake Chase and Effect Rescue

PLYMOUTH, Eng., Dec. 3.—Preparations are understood to have been made for the arrest of Mrs. Emmeline Pankhurst, the militant suffragette leader, on her arrival here from the United States on board the Majestic tonight. A force of suffragettes under the command of "General" Mrs. Flora Drummond will be on the spot ready to fight for their leader's freedom.

The chief constable at Plymouth later confirmed the report that Mrs. Pankhurst was to be arrested. He spent the day preparing an adequate force to deal with any attempt at rescue by the militant suffragettes.

SUFFRAGETTES TO AID.
No unauthorized person will be allowed on board the tender which meets the Majestic on her arrival and only the holders of special permits will be transferred to a special police tug and taken to another port.

They have chartered a vessel to undertake a chase with the specially formed troop to effect her rescue.

Administers Liquor To 3-Year Grandson

DENVER, Dec. 3.—Carl Meyers, 50 years of age, was placed in the city jail last night, charged with having administered liquor to his 3-year-old grandson, Wilbert Allison, and with having threatened his wife with a knife when she interfered. Wilbert Allison was taken to the county hospital where, late last night, it was reported he was in a serious condition.

According to Mrs. Meyers, her husband returned home yesterday with a bottle of port wine. He tried to make the child drink it, she said, and when she interfered she was driven from the home by the husband. Mrs. Meyers notified the police and upon their arrival they discovered the baby lying upon the floor, intoxicated.

Rob Bank of $10,000 and Kill Manager

WINNIPEG, Dec. 3.—A report that the branch of the Bank of Montreal at Plum Coulee, in Southern Manitoba, had been held up and the manager of the branch killed by robbers, was received here this afternoon by telephone. Mounted police are said to be closing in on the bandits. Manager H. M. Arnold was alone in the bank when the robbers entered and submitted while the robbers took $10,000 in currency from the safe, then armed himself and went in pursuit. The robbers turned and shot him.

Judge Walked Floor With Bottle Baby

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 3.—Superior Judge Graham confessed in court today that he had, once walked the floor with a bottle baby. He had had no difficulty in looking out for the child as the bottle contained water in his pocket. This bit of history was revealed when Dr. Charles H. Baker begged for the custody of his infant daughter. The court told him the babe must remain with the mother but that there was no reason why he could not have it as it was a bottle infant and could be looked out for by him if he wanted to take it out from time to time. Dr. Baker was in court in connection with alimony proceedings and paid over the amount owing.

Police Gather for Battle Suffragettes Will Fight

MRS. EMMELINE PANKHURST, WHOSE ARREST MAY CAUSE BATTLE BETWEEN POLICE AND SUFFRAGETTES.

FLOODS THREATEN CITIES OF TEXAS

WACO, Texas, Dec. 3.—Water 10 feet deep flowed through the principal streets of East Waco today, while the Brazos overflowed and passed all previous stages and continued to rise. The East Waco section began flooding last night when a heavy rain fell. There was no loss of life.

DALLAS IN DANGER.
DALLAS, Texas, Dec. 3.—Swollen by heavy rains, creeks and rivers reached a dangerous stage today in central Texas, much of west Texas and south Oklahoma.

Waco was the only city of consequence in serious flood trouble, but Dallas is expecting a rise in the Trinity river. The flood had receded at Austin and Fort Worth.

Ministerial Crisis Upsets Paris Bourse

PARIS, Dec. 3.—The lowest quotations ever recorded for French three per cent rentes were reached on the Paris bourse this morning when the price fell to 84 francs 75 centimes. The fall of the cabinet under the leadership of M. Louis Barthou, which was created in the chamber of Deputies last night when it insisted on the immunity of government bonds from taxation. Other securities were also somewhat affected by the ministerial crisis.

Among those mentioned as likely to head a new cabinet are Senator Jean Dupuy, a former premier, and Senator Haulouis Peytral, formerly minister of finance.

FEARS CHILD MAY BE TAKEN AWAY

Fearing that Stanley McKenzie of Alameda has intentions of taking his 1-year-old daughter, Alice Naville McKenzie, out of the state, Mrs. Myrtle McKenzie, who was divorced from her husband on November 12, today sought the authorities in an effort to prevent the separation. Accompanied by Thomas O'Reilly, the mother endeavored to get a restraining order, although by the terms of the interlocutory decree granted by Superior Judge Wells the child was given into the custody of its father.

McKenzie, with his daughter, has been living at the home of G. S. McKenzie, Jr., at 1340 Pearl street, Alameda. It is said that his father has planned a trip to Honolulu, and Mrs. McKenzie fears that her daughter will be included in the party.

Mrs. McKenzie formerly lived with her parents in Japan, where she was married in 1907.

Upon an affidavit sworn to by Mrs. McKenzie that she believed her husband was going to take the child out of the state, Superior Judge Wells this afternoon issued an order to show cause why the child should not be placed in her custody pending a final decree of divorce being granted. The matter was set for hearing next week.

Severe Cold Attack

WASHINGTON, Dec. 3.—President Wilson had a severe cold today and remained in the executive mansion on the advice of his physician. He decided to set today apart for a complete rest and no engagements were made.

HINDU PLOT UNCOVERED BY U. S.

Organization Seeks to Flood Coast With Immigrants

Caminetti at Work on Plan to Frustrate
Organization

VANCOUVER, B. C., Dec. 3.—Immigration officials of the United States are busy with efforts to frustrate the plans of a secret organization, with headquarters at Manila, to flood the Pacific coast states with Hindu laborers, according to Antony Caminetti, commissioner-general of immigration. Caminetti left here today for Seattle, after having conferred yesterday with British Columbia officials at Victoria on immigration problems.

Advices had reached the immigration service, Caminetti said, that arrangements had been made at Manila to send the East Indians from the Philippines with certificates obtained from the department of state of the insular government.

FIVE GAIN ADMISSION.
On the strength of these certificates a party of five Hindus gained admission to the United States at San Francisco, establishing a precedent, he said, and preparations were made immediately for sending forward an army of laborers in the same way.

Cots were purchased by the Manila agents for the use of Hindus on ship board en route to Pacific coast ports so that they might sleep on deck when regular accommodations were overtaxed.

AUTHORITIES ACTIVE.
The American immigration department became active, Caminetti said, as soon as the plan became known, and the majority of the Hindus applying for admission at San Francisco were afterward rejected as liable to become public charges. The same treatment met them at other ports.

Caminetti said he had arrived at an agreement with the Great Northern and Northern Pacific railroads restricting the transportation of Hindu laborers and hoped for similar agreements with other trans-continental lines.

TEST CASE TO DECIDE.

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 3.—If a flood of Asiatic immigration is headed toward the Pacific coast, as Commissioner-General Caminetti indicated today, he believed the ability of the department of immigration to stem it will depend largely on a test case now under advisement by Judge Maurice F. Doelling, lately appointed to the United States District Court. Final arguments were submitted yesterday.

Twenty-two Hindus who previously had been admitted to the Philippines were detained by immigration inspectors on reaching this port and ordered deported on the ground that they were likely to become public charges. They are comparatively well-to-do in their own country, some of them are land-holders there, and all of them are assured of employment here, according to the arguments presented in their behalf.

They retained counsel and applied for writs of habeas corpus. The department of immigration fought the case and Commissioner-General Caminetti was personally in attendance at all the hearings except that of yesterday.

Senate in Debate on Direct Primary Law

WASHINGTON, Dec. 3.—President Wilson's recommendation for direct primary election of presidential candidates came up in the Senate today in a debate that held the body more than an hour, during which Senators Bristow, Cummins and others expressed the hope that Democrats of a reform which they declared, Progressive Republicans long had demanded.

Senator Martin replied that the Democrats were "in one accord with the titular head and the actual head of the Democratic party."

Sensors Bristow and Cummins retorted that the Democratic leaders should prove it by introducing bills introduced by Progressive Republicans early in the session. Bristow has introduced such a bill, modeled after the Kansas law.

Secret Service Arrests
Oakland Man; Alleged Crook

W. Harry McAuley Taken Into Custody in a Rooming House

In a room at 429 Third street, this city, Secret Service Agent Harry Moffitt, with a number of assistants, today surprised and arrested W. Harry McAuley, alleged leader of being one of a notorious band of counterfeiters.

Several indictments were returned two years ago in Omaha for the arrest of a gang who had been making counterfeit $5. banknotes to McAuley is said to answer to the description of one of them, and although he protests his innocence, the secret service operatives are apparently satisfied that they have the right man in custody.

THOUSANDS CIRCULATED.
Thousands of dollars worth of fake currency, which was so cleverly made that it easily passed muster, was circulated throughout the middle west, two years ago. The notes purported to be issued by the Citizens National Bank of Albert Lea, Minnesota. None were passed after the federal grand jury indicted the gang in Omaha.

Not a single member of the gang was captured. It was presumed that all had changed their names and had turned to honest toil. This is apparently what McAuley also did.

He is alleged, however, to have been one of the ringleaders. Secret service men from the east were sent here to identify him. By means of several clues which were followed, McAuley was traced to his room in Oakland.

Among his effects gone over by the officers following his capture today was a letter from his wife, who is in Peru, Nebraska. She is a school teacher. She declares in one missive that she is glad to hear that he likes his visit in California, and that his partner is such a "good man."

Despite following his capture today was a letter from his wife, who is in Peru, Nebraska. She is a school teacher. She declares in one missive that she is glad to hear that he likes his visit in California, and that his partner is such a "good man."

McAuley declared that he is innocent and that his arrest is a mistake.

Will Consider Sale Of Church Tonight

The project of selling the present site of the First Congregational church will be definitely decided tonight when at a meeting to take place at the Clay-street edifice, the trustees will go thoroughly into the matter and voice their decision. It is understood that a plan for selling the site at Twelfth and Clay streets, the proceeds to build a new edifice, is under consideration.

The choosing of a pastor is still to be settled by the congregation. It is said that some favor calling Dr. Van Horn of Seattle, who filled the pulpit for a short time. Others are still urging Rev. A. W. Palmer.

Los Angeles Real Estate Man Suicide

SCRANTON, Pa., Dec. 3.—Edward O'Brien of Los Angeles is dying in a hospital here from a self-inflicted bullet wound in the head, fired while standing in an entrance of the courthouse today. He was a prosperous real estate man in Los Angeles and came here last week to spend Thanksgiving with his brother, former District Attorney Joseph O'Brien, after an absence of 26 years. A letter addressed to the latter indicated that O'Brien had suffered business reverses and was melancholy from sickness.

Royal Arch Plans to Invoke the Initiative

Calling for an assessment of $50 on the part of each member of the Royal Arch, the organization, last night adopted a resolution calling for the invoking of the initiative. They will seek a new charter which will provide for an increase in the number of members.

SCORES INJURED IN FATAL FIRE THAT DESTROYS HOTEL

Victims Poor Persons Caught Asleep
in Tiers of Cheap Lodging House Bunks

BOSTON, Dec. 3.—Twenty-seven men were killed in a fire which swept through the upper floors of the Arcadia hotel, a lodging-house in the South End, early today. Others are missing. Scores were taken to hospitals. Nearly all the bodies were terribly burned, making identification impossible.

The victims were men in poor circumstances. Caught in the crowded bunks on the top floor of the five-story brick building and in the small rooms on the fourth floor, they were helpless. When they were aroused the stairways were in flames and there was a mad rush for the fire-escapes at the rear.

MANY ARE RESCUED.
Many were rescued by the firemen and police. Some escaped by walking a shaky plank stretched to an adjoining building or by jumping across the five-foot alley to neighboring roofs. The property loss is only $25,000.

The Arcadia was located at the corner of Washington and Laconia streets. The lower floors were occupied by stores. The fire apparently started in a hallway closet on the street floor. The flames swept up the wooden stairs and burned through the roof.

"LOBBY!" ROARS SENATOR WORKS

Charges Fired During
Hetch-Hetchy Fight
Involve Pinchot

WASHINGTON, Dec. 3.—Charges of lobbying in connection with the bill to permit San Francisco to take a water supply from the Hetchy valley, involving Gifford Pinchot and Theodore A. Bell, former member of Congress from California, were today made in the Senate. During a speech opposing the bill Senator Works remarked:

"If you will go out into the corridors of this capital now you will find Gifford Pinchot lobbying in favor of this bill. At least he was here this morning."

"While you are denouncing lobbying," interrupted Senator Thomas, "why not include Theodore A. Bell of California, who is here opposing the bill?"

"I am not here to defend Mr. Bell," replied Senator Works, "but I don't know of his attempting to influence the judgment of a single individual Senator."

"I have thought for some time," interjected Senator Kenyon of Iowa, "that the lobby committee which has not yet concluded its investigation, would do well to take up the lobbies which have been working on this bill."

Senator Works declared it would require ten years to finish a system that would supply San Francisco from the Hetchy valley reservoirs, and that other sources of water supply at the doors of San Francisco, much more available and ample for the city's use. The plant of the Spring Valley Water Company, which now supplies the city, he contended, could be developed to satisfy the needs of the community.

CLOSING HIS SPEECH.
Senator Works closed his two-day speech with the declaration that he represented a substantial part of the people of San Francisco and of California in his opposition to the bill.

"I am afraid some other representatives of California have lacked the courage to stand in the face of the appeals made to Congress and to defend the rights of the people of San Francisco against this plan," he added.

Senator Thomas of Colorado, who followed Senator Works, vigorously represented a substantial part of the people of the House and of the Senate in every member of the House public lands committee had voted for a favorable report.

"I have reached the conclusion," he said, "after mature deliberation that the passage of this measure is essential to the future welfare of the city of San Francisco and the other municipalities which cluster about San Francisco bay."

Water Improvement Body in Session

WASHINGTON, Dec. 3.—The tenth annual convention of the National Rivers and Harbors Congress, which was in session here today, began today.

Secretary Lane was substituted for the last moment for Secretary Ryan, who had been originally picked on the program to represent President Wilson but who was prevented from coming. Secretary Lane read a message of greeting from President Wilson, congratulating the congress on what it had already accomplished, and expressing the hope that river and harbor improvement could be conducted on broad national lines.

NEWSBOY IS HERO.

According to William Walsh, the night clerk, there were 175 lodgers in the building when the fire was discovered by a passing newsboy. After turning in an alarm he rushed into the building and began awakening the men with his shouts.

The top floor was one large room, filled with cots and bunks. On the fourth floor, where the loss of life was heaviest, there were 30 tiny rooms, like cells, with two cots in each. A hallway ran through the center. The men in the rear rooms opening on the fire escapes had locked the doors when they went to bed and those in front were unable to reach the fire escape.

FLAMES SHOOT HIGH.

When the firemen arrived flames were shooting twenty feet in the air from the windows on the fourth and fifth floors and the fire escapes and the roof were a mass of shrieking, struggling humanity. Despite shouts of assurance from below three men jumped from the roof. Two were instantly killed. The third, who had wrapped a mattress about himself, escaped with a few bruises.

Life nets were stretched quickly by the firemen and many rescued in this manner. Others were taken down ladders with the flames sweeping about them. The intense heat soon drove the firemen from their ladders and made it necessary to fight the fire from the streets and from the elevated railway structure in front of the building.

EXACTFUL BURGLAR TAKEN BY POLICE

Jots Down in a Note
Book Various "Jobs"
He Did

Dates and addresses neatly written in a little note book, which the police found on the person of John C. Lewis, arrested this morning for drunkenness, gave the clue to half a dozen burglaries committed in the past two weeks. Lewis was a methodical burglar, according to his note book. He set down the dates, addresses and inventoried the articles taken.

Lewis is the first burglar ever captured by the Oakland police who kept a careful chronological record of his criminal activities.

Patrolman Duane found Lewis at Third and Jefferson streets and took him to the city prison, where he was booked for drunkenness.

It was found in the note book as follows: A burglary at East Twelfth and Eighth avenues, a saloon at Third and Center streets, a residence at Twelfth and Broadway, a company at First and Broadway.

Democrats Again Fail On Currency Program

WASHINGTON, Dec. 3.—Senate Democrats failed again today to get formal ratification of their currency bill program, but an eleven-hour day session was insisted on.

SECRETARY M'ADOO REPORTS

Reviews Achievements of U. S. Treasury Department

Recommends Increased Appropriations for Business

UNCLE SAM IS RICH McADOO'S FIGURES

Secretary McAdoo estimates in his report today that the revenues for the fiscal year, exclusive of postoffice receipts, will be $728,000,000, only $2,000,000 less than the estimates for the fiscal year 1914. To make that total he expects the customs to bring in $249,000,000, ordinary internal revenue $315,000,000, and the income tax $105,000,000, of which $40,000,000 is to come from corporations, the remainder from individuals.

From sales of public lands he expects to pay in the next $2,000,000 and from miscellaneous sources $56,000,000.

He expresses the belief the ordinary receipts for 1915 will exceed the disbursements sufficiently to pay out about $26,000,000 from the treasury's general fund for the Panama canal.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 3.—Secretary McAdoo's first report to Congress, delivered today, is largely confined to a review of the achievements of the treasury department in matters that have been of nation-wide interest; to recommendations for increased appropriations for bureaus under his authority and for legislation, which he declares, necessary to the better conduct of the government and the protection of the people.

The secretary discusses at some length the subject of currency legislation reviewing the activities in his department related to it. He speaks of an unrest in business circles following the beginning of the special session of Congress in April, refers to a "propaganda of pessimism which designedly or not, produced a condition of extreme nervousness and tension," and points to his announcement in June that the treasury was ready to issue $500,000,000 of emergency currency under the Aldrich-Vreeland act to prevent restriction of credits and to ease any situation.

Mr. McAdoo details the treasury's offer to loan to banks of the country money to meet the fall crops. The $48,500,000 out of $50,000,000 estimated to be needed was apportioned among the states.

NON-PARTISANSHIP ESSENTIAL.

"It was essential," says the secretary, "that the action of the department should be non-partisan and non-political, the crops of Republicans, Democrats and Progressives, all other classes of people had to be moved and the earnest effort of the department was to have the benefits of this action diffused as widely as possible."

After praising the psychological value of these incidents the report continues: "They demonstrate clearly that any improvement in our financial system which will permanently establish confidence, will in itself be an immense gain, and that it is the duty of the government to take the opportunity to secure at all times the necessary funds and credits to meet the expanding and legitimate needs of the commerce and industry of the country, it will be an achievement of enduring benefit."

"These incidents also show conclusively the enormous value of an altruistic governmental agency in the financial affairs of the country. So long as the government has the power to intervene in a beneficent and unselfish way, the danger of panic and unjustly inflicted suffering will be not wholly destroyed. This is one of the chief objects sought in the proposed reformation and reorganization of our banking and currency system. The people of the country are to be Congress enact the fundamentals of the pending measure it is believed that permanent protection will be provided against recurring commercial crises and the additional facilities will be created for that legitimate and sound expansion of credit so vital to the prosperity of our great and growing country."

TARIFF TOO RECENT.
Of the new tariff act Secretary McAdoo says it has not been in force a sufficient length of time to make possible an accurate estimate of its ultimate revenue-producing powers. He asks Congress to impose a nominal tax of 1 per cent proof gallon on all alcohol withdrawn for denaturation, and legislation requiring every dealer in lead to make an inventory of stock January 1 of each year and make a report of his transactions quarterly or monthly, and that every dealer be required to give bond.

The present oleomargarine law is declared to be unsatisfactory and the government is said to have more than 100,000 cases of oleomargarine from illicit practices in oleomargarine cases through numerous cases of difference in the tax on colored and uncolored "oleo" is held responsible for the loss and Congress is asked to impose a flat nominal tax without any difference for color, with provision for individual stamped or original packages of certain sizes adequately marked and safeguarded. The law governing the sale of adulterated butter is declared to have brought about untold suffering and the government is asked to take prompt action to remedy the difficulty of its just enforcement.

Among his principal recommendations are:

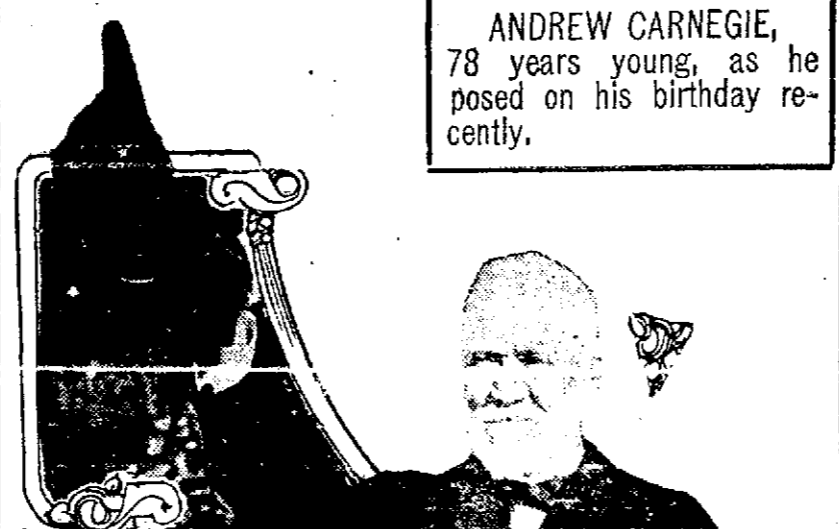

Enlargement of the public health service and closer co-operation with state authorities to prevent and stamp out epidemics of disease.

Building of four revenue cutters, for need of which the secretary points out, the service is seriously crippled.

CONSOLIDATED COAST GUARD.
Consolidation of the revenue cutter and life-saving service into one organization to be known as the Coast Guard. Such a consolidation, the secretary says, would increase the efficiency of each service.

Everybody Has Life Option Carnegie Bid Brings Replies

ANDREW CARNEGIE, 78 years young, as he posed on his birthday recently.

NEW YORK.

Dec. 3.—"I said it in all good faith," mourned Andrew Carnegie today. "Now I wish I hadn't."

And the iron-master is genuinely mournful. He has cause to be. His mail has doubled.

One week ago he offered any price for "an option on life." Since then he has received close on to 1,500 letters from Ponce de Leon in all parts of the United States, all offering him the secret of immortality at prices ranging from ten dollars to ten million.

Carnegie was 78 years old on November 25 and he was happy on the occasion. "Earth is such a heaven I never want to leave it," he said. "If you can show me anyone who can give me an option on life, he can have my money."

Whereupon several hundred named their prices.

"And Europe is still to be heard from," Carnegie confided to a friend today as he received another bundle of special delivery mail.

The multi-millionaire iron master is enjoying the best of health. Recently he returned from Castle Skibo, his place in Scotland. Pittsburgh celebrated his birthday with a parade of the students of the Institute of Technology, founded by Carnegie and the first honorary degree to be given by the Institute was conferred on William McGowan, member of the Carnegie board of trustees. Charles M. Schwab delivered an address on "Andrew Carnegie."

with the idea that the new coast guard should become a first naval reserve in time of war. The increase in cost would be about $400,000. In that connection the secretary also recommends passage of legislation for the retirement of life savings on pension and declares that unless some such measure is made law, the efficiency of the service will be impaired and it will become increasingly difficult to obtain good men. He gives point to his argument by showing that the revenue cutter and life-saving services saved 142 lives in 1912. The life-saving property worth more than $16,000,000.

Establishment of revenue cutter headquarters at Louisville or Cincinnati, at St. Louis or some other point in Upper Mississippi and at Helena, Arkansas, or Vicksburg, Miss., is urged as a measure for the saving of life in the food time of the Ohio and Mississippi valleys. Three light draught cutters to cost about $80,000 each are recommended. With the rivers at normal stage they would be used in patrol to enforce the navigation and motor boat laws.

The report refers to the requirement that "every citizen should government deposits made April 20, 1913, pay interest at 2 per cent, declaring that it means an annual revenue of $2,000,000 to the government and showing that if such a regulation had been made in 1897 the government would now have received in interest more than $20,000,000.

The income tax is now dwelt upon at length, but the report estimates that 425,000 individuals are subject to it and that corporations not heretofore subject to tax will number about 150,000.

URGES MARINE PROTECTION.
International action to prevent such disasters at sea as resulted in the sinking of the Titanic is urged.

"The important maritime nations should unite," says the secretary, "in defining lanes of travel across the North Atlantic to avoid all danger of icebergs during the months of April, May and June of each year, and compel steamship companies to observe them. This would result in increasing to some extent the time of ocean passage but it would on the other hand, insure immunity from the dangers of icebergs during this season. The steamship companies should not be permitted to jeopardize needlessly human life for the purpose of shortening the trans-Atlantic journey by a few hours, and saving a comparatively few dollars, but if they are they should be compelled to maintain an effective ice patrol at their own cost."

The question is to be taken up by the International Conference on safety at sea now in session in London.

Speaking of scientific research the Public Health Service the report says: "On account of the announcements of discoveries of alleged cures for tuberculosis and their bearing on public health, important investigations of them have been undertaken. Studies of the Friedmann treatment were sufficiently advanced by May 10, 1913, to justify a report that the observations made up to that time did not warrant the confidence in the remedy which had been inspired by widespread publicity. This investigation other preparations claimed as cures."

MINE WORKER SENTENCED.
PHILIPPI, W. Va., Dec. 3.—Van Rittner, president of District No. 5, United Mine Workers of America, was sentenced yesterday to serve 60 days in jail by United States Judge Dayton for violating the court's orders in connection with a coal strike at Colliers, W. Va. Eight other mine leaders, contingent on their behavior, were given suspended sentences.

"COME 7, COME 11," AND THEN CAME GUN

"Barney" Loses at Craps; But Wins $128 at Subsequent "Line-Up."

Looks Quartet in Closet and Shows Change of Luck in Escape.

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 3.—Turning suddenly upon four companions with whom he had been shooting craps in a room at the Hotel Lenox, this morning, a man known as "Barney" drew a revolver, robbed them of $128 and locked them in a closet. He succeeded in making his escape.

The victims—Charles Dudley of the Hotel Morton, Fred O'Dea of the Hotel Grand, Glenn Brown of the Tivoli Hotel, and Clair Addison of the Hotel Morton—possessed with the gambling fever, decided at 2:30 this morning that they would enjoy a roll with the dice. Together with "Barney" they proceeded to the Hotel Lenox, where they met Miss Pyrie Burgess, who was just leaving her apartment. One of the young men knew her and she consented to loan them the room. They were seen in a crouching position, all interest in the game, "Barney" lost heavily, and after a short while he suddenly whipped out a pistol and compelled his associates to line up. From Dudley he obtained $100 and from O'Dea $28. The other two had nothing in their pockets. Some of the money stolen had been lying on the floor. After he had obtained all the cash in sight, he is alleged to have compelled the four men to enter a closet. There was no key, so he locked the door and ran from the building. A few moments later the prisoners came forth, notified the clerk of their plight by telephone and were released. Then the police were communicated with. Officers Whalen, Walsh and Cummings started on a hunt for "Barney."

Meantime, the holdup man had been busy. In front of a saloon in the neighborhood at 6 a. m. he met John Driscoll of 618 Twentieth street. He hired him to obtain his suitcase from his apartment at the Hotel Tivoli. Driscoll secretly on the stairs and seized upon the arms of Patrolman Cummings, who was waiting. The officer believed he had captured the holdup man. Driscoll explained that he was a friend of Cummings' in the saloon, where he was supposed to meet "Barney." Evidently the man was watching from a place of concealment, as he did not appear. Driscoll was brought to police headquarters, as were the victims and Miss Burgess, who returned to her home at 6:30. All were questioned by Detective Collier, who has been assigned to investigate.

CHINESE MISSION HEAD BRINGS SUIT

Rev. J. N. Condit, Aged 80 Years, Commences Action for $12,000.

Rev. J. N. Condit, 80 years of age, who conducts a Chinese mission at 617 Harrison street, today commenced suit to recover $12,000 from R. B. Mott and F. C. Watson, alleging that they induced him to exchange property at Nineteenth and Webster streets for bond certificates in the United Properties Company under the representation that the certificates would be redeemed in mortgage gold bonds valued at $12,000.

Plaintiff recites that at the time the transaction was made last January he desired to consult with W. W. Garrison, the banker, but that he was dissuaded from such a course by the defendants, whom he alleges told him that as the bonds were not on the market the bankers would not know anything about him. The aged missionary says that his intimacies and familiarity in business affairs were taken advantage of by the two men. He asks for judgment for $12,000.

F. C. Watson today made the following statement in explanation of the suit brought by Rev. J. N. Condit: "Some time in the latter part of 1911 Dr. Condit came into my office and was very anxious to sell his Webster street property, as it was vacant and he could not afford to fix it up to rent again. He was very anxious to sell it and would have taken $10,000 net cash for the property."

Gus Hakis, 1572 Seventh street, was arrested today by Police Inspectors Flynn, Gallagher and Green on complaint of the Oakland Commission Company, otherwise known as Rantzen Bros., and will be charged with misdemeanor embezzlement. The third of the winter schedule of public lectures being delivered by faculty members of St. Mary's college will be made Saturday evening at 8 o'clock in the college gymnasium by Brother Vantassian, head of the department of Commerce, who will give an illustrated talk on the Yosemite valley.

Brother Vantassian has made three trips through the valley and has collected much valuable data. His illustrations include many interesting scenic views. The final lecture of the series will be delivered on December 15 by Brother Lewis, who will speak on the "Visitation." All of the lectures so far made have been attended by fairly large crowds.

The other lectures were made by Brother Constantine on "Socialism," and Brother Leo on "Canon Sheehan."

Serious Fighting Occurs at Milagro

GUAYAQUIL, Ecuador, Dec. 3.—A serious engagement took place yesterday morning when a newly organized band of rebels attacked the town of Milagro. After three hours fighting the rebels were routed. As far as known one of the rebels was killed, seven were wounded and 15 were made prisoners. The government forces lost four killed and six wounded.

GEN'L DIAZ ON ACTIVE LIST

Former President Receives Orders of Transfer

BULLETIN.
MEXICO CITY, Dec. 3.—The war department today published an order transferring General Porfirio Diaz from the retired list to the active list. The order bears date of September 20.

JUAREZ, Mexico, Dec. 3.—Confident that the seven federal generals who evacuated Chihuahua City with the troops intend to seek refuge in the United States, and thus be beyond danger of being taken prisoners by the rebels, General Francisco Villa sent more constitutionalists today to attempt to intercept them.

The generals, led by General Salvador Mercado, whose desertion of Chihuahua and whose statement that he had no money to pay his troops are regarded as a virtual breakdown of the Huerta dictatorship so far as the north of Mexico is concerned, are headed for Ojinaga, on the border. It is thought they will cross the river to Presidio, will be arrested by United States military authorities and taken to San Antonio. With this generals are many subordinate officers, about 2000 federal regular soldiers and more than 1000 people of the wealthier class of Chihuahua, who took flight rather than face an attack by the rebels.

OROZCO IS THERE.

General Pascual Orozco and General Jose Ynes Salazar, said to be with Mercado, are under indictment by the United States federal court in El Paso, Texas, for violation of the neutrality law. Salazar is out on bond but Orozco never was caught.

Villa had little hope that his soldiers would be able to overtake the federal, who left Chihuahua several days before the law of their flight became known.

That Mercado, after handing over the portfolio of state to Frederico More, will offer to surrender on behalf of himself and his subordinates and then fly to the border was regarded by Villa as an unusual procedure. "The only place they will surrender will be in the United States," said Villa, as he sat at breakfast in Juarez headquarters today and let an automatic pistol which lay among the spoons and forks at his plate.

ALL LOST HEART.

Charles A. Heberlein of Los Angeles, who came from Chihuahua with the peace commission requesting Villa to occupy the city, said when the federal left the penitentiary had been emptied of all the committed convicts. "Everything possible was done by General Mercado to treat the citizens humanely," said Heberlein. "Patience, however, was worn out. The people had been in a panic for so long they could endure it no longer. All the money had been withdrawn from the city. The repeated defeats of the federal troops as they ventured forth and came back broken was discouraging. There was no money to pay the troops and everybody lost heart."

TAMISCO NOW CAPITAL.

MEXICO CITY, Dec. 3.—The seaport city of Tampico was officially declared the temporary capital of the State of Tamaulipas. General Antonio Rabago, the military governor, who was forced to abandon Ciudad Victoria and who was erroneously reported to have committed suicide, has fled to Tampico under orders from the federal government to establish his governorship in the temporary capital.

For the trial package you will have to send direct to Mrs. Potter's Walnut Tint Hair Stain Co., 1922 Center Bldg., Cincinnati, Ohio.

MONEY DOES NOT GROW IN TREES, SAYS OFFICIAL

ALAMEDA, Dec. 3.—Mayor Frank Otis, at the meeting of the city council last evening, recommended the installation of a landing for boats at the east end of Lincoln Park. Mayor Otis said that last Saturday afternoon, when the two largest boats accepted by the city, he noticed that the landing is a necessity. He recommended that a board walk, with benches, also be installed along the shore line of the park. The mayor declared that he did not intend to tell the recreation commission his ideas and have that body make an investigation.

Council President A. L. Morgenstern, who is also president of the recreation commission, said that that body meets every fourth Wednesday and that it would be pleased to listen to the suggestions of the mayor. Morgenstern said that in the matter of finances the commission has to go slow. He presented many suggestions as to how to get the money out of the city, but that he would not follow out. "We cannot get the money out of the city," he said, "but we can get it out of the city."

He wished the mayor would make a finding financial means of installing the landing and the board walk.

LATEST NEWS FROM RICHMOND

SUPERVISORS WILL NOT AID ASSN.

Cannot Afford to Assist Enterprise at Present, Is Claim.

RICHMOND, Dec. 2.—The board of supervisors has decided that it cannot at this time allow the Bay Counties Tourist Association the sum of $1500 asked by that organization for booster work in 1914. The county did not levy the two per cent public fund for the purpose of this fund.

The supervisors feel that the Tourist Association, which is working to have the people who visit Richmond in 1915 look over the surrounding counties of the bay district without spending all of their time and even in San Francisco to and this has left the publicity fund of the county rather short. The board figured that as it was appealing considerable money on good roads to be completed and used by 1915 that it could not afford the association any assistance at this time.

The supervisors feel that the Tourist Association, which is working to have the people who visit Richmond in 1915 look over the surrounding counties of the bay district without spending all of their time and even in San Francisco to

Delay Khan Trial McKenzie Is Sure

SAID ALI KHAN.

RICHMOND, Dec. 2.—The trial of Said Ali Khan, charged with the murder of Rosa Domingo of Stege, which was to have commenced in the superior court yesterday morning was postponed another week owing to the inability to secure a judge to preside at the extra session of court.

District Attorney A. D. McKenzie who was in this city last evening stated that he has offered all of the evidence which he considers necessary to convict the accused to the superior court.

"The case will be heard in the superior court," he said, "and I am sure that the jury will find the accused guilty."

PROGRESSIVE CLUB IS ADDING MEMBERS

RICHMOND, Dec. 2.—Fifteen new members were received into the Progressive club of the unincorporated district at its headquarters in Potrero avenue last evening. The club under its new organization is soon to have every live wire in the district and it promises to do much for the district.

Plans for a free Christmas tree for the kiddies of that section to be given at the club hall on the 20th inst. were outlined and it promises to be the biggest social event that the organization has yet given.

Health Commissioner C. R. Pike sent word of a sanitary inspection of the district and gave the club a very interesting report on the needs of that part of the city. The club council through its committee on sanitation stated that the bad place in Pullman avenue where the double tracking of the street railway and a bridge placed in first-class condition. Maps of the proposed new sewer system for the district were on hand and were examined with interest by the boosters.

APPEAL WILL BE TAKEN IN CASE OF CONVICTED COP

RICHMOND, Dec. 2.—Confident of a reversal of the ruling of Judge Lamm of the superior court in the case of R. B. Cradock, a police detective convicted of beating a Native American in the color of authority, W. A. Munnell, chief of the police, advised today that he will take an appeal to the supreme court in an effort to free the convicted detective.

Judge Lamm, in his decision, held that because his appointment as a deputy sheriff of the county was not a regular appointment, the detective will be in court today for sentence when a stay of judgment will be asked by the superior court.

Although the higher courts can pass upon the technical question raised by the defense.

DECISION EXPECTED SOON IN SUIT OVER REFERENDUM

RICHMOND, Dec. 2.—A decision in the suit brought against the city last spring to prevent the council from placing a referendum petition regarding the proposed labor ordinance on the municipal ballot for the last municipal election, is expected to be handed down shortly by Superior Judge R. B. Cradock, who is presiding over the case.

The ordinance which it was feared by the petitioners to be a violation of the state constitution, on all public contracts local labor must be employed. A few days before the municipal election, Fred H. Hendershot, local organizer, brought suit against the city and the temporary restraining order issued by the court.

MEMORIAL PROGRAM ARRANGED BY ELKS

RICHMOND, Dec. 2.—The annual house of sorrow of Richmond lodge of Elks will be held next Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the Wesley Methodist church, where the most of the Elks of the city will be present.

George W. Lamm, superintendent of schools of Alameda county and a member of Oakland lodge, No. 101, will be the main attraction. Frick is an able speaker and his address should be well worth hearing. Dr. C. L. Abbott, past exalted ruler of Richmond lodge, will also be present.

A feature of the program is to be the singing by a local quartet under the direction of Dr. J. A. Martin of the hymn, "God Save the King." The quartet is composed of the following: Dr. J. A. Martin, Dr. C. L. Abbott, Dr. J. A. Martin, Dr. C. L. Abbott, Dr. J. A. Martin, Dr. C. L. Abbott.

PECULIAR ACCIDENT MAY COST EMPLOYEE HIS SIGHT

RICHMOND, Dec. 2.—A R. Pearson, who was employed by the city of Richmond, may lose the sight of his right eye as the result of an accident which occurred last night when he was struck by a piece of iron steel torn from a rail by the drive wheel of a locomotive which was passing over a trestle over the city street.

Pearson was standing near the trestle when the drive wheel of the locomotive struck him on the head. The accident occurred at about 10 o'clock last night.

RICHMOND ORDINANCE TO REGULATE BILLBOARDS

RICHMOND, Dec. 2.—If the ordinance to regulate billboards, which was passed by the city council Monday evening, becomes a law, billboards in Richmond will hereafter be subjected to a rigid regulation.

The ordinance provides that the signs must be more than 12 feet high, that they must clear the ground by at least 10 feet, and that they must be removed within 10 days after the expiration of their term.

TRIALS OF CITY OFFICIALS POSTPONED FOR WEEK

RICHMOND, Dec. 3.—The trials of H. D. Chapman, city engineer, D. J. Hall, city attorney, and Superintendent of Streets Frank Webb on charges of malicious mischief, preferred by George Lee of this city, which were to come on before Justice of the Peace W. W. Huber at Stege yesterday morning, were postponed a week.

Deputy District Attorney A. S. Ormsby came down from Martinez to prosecute the charges against the city officials, who are under the jurisdiction of his office, where they are not incorporated cities.

PASTOR QUILTS MINISTRY TO RUN PIGEON FARM

RICHMOND, Dec. 2.—Rev. Aubrey Wilson, who recently resigned the pastorate of the First Christian church of this city, is to forsake the ministry for the pigeon raising industry. Wilson has purchased a number of lots in the rough section of the city where he will erect at once the necessary buildings for his pigeon farm, and will commence his new business at the end of the month.

Wilson has joined the State Association of Pigeon Raisers and expects to dispose of a large number of his birds through the agency of that organization.

MONTHLY WHIST PARTY

RICHMOND, Dec. 3.—Tonight is the date for the monthly whist party of the ladies of St. Mary's church, to be held at the recreation hall in Tenth street, near District 10, where it is expected that there will be a large attendance of the members of the congregation and their friends.

The parties have proven very successful and from the interest already aroused and the very pretty prizes secured on tonight's affair it promises to be the best yet given.

DENISON ANSWERS CAPWELL DENIAL

Maintains Possibility of Political Influence Behind Proposed Merger.

Unbending his statements regarding the possibility of political influences being behind the proposed merger of the Chamber of Commerce and the Tax Association, Secretary A. A. Denison of the Chamber of Commerce today answered the denial of J. C. Capwell, who yesterday, on hearing of charges of politics being made by the secretary, declared them unfounded. Denison today declared that he could not say for a certainty that there were political influences behind the move, but stated that it was possible, from several different angles.

"I have no desire," said Denison, "to enter into a controversy with any one with regard to the proposed merger of commercial organizations. The statement, however, that there may be political influences behind the move, is a statement which is backed by the fact that all the commercial organizations of Oakland are in a single control may be fairly predicted upon certain antecedents which have been mentioned by the Chamber of Commerce as having an attitude of independence and fearlessness in the criticism of certain municipal policies."

HOW I MADE MY HAIR GROW

Woman With Marvelously Beautiful Hair Gives Simple Home Prescription Which She Used With Most Remarkable Results

I was greatly troubled with dandruff and falling hair. I tried many advertised hair preparations and various prescriptions, but they all signally failed; many of them made my hair greasy so it was impossible to comb it or do it up properly. I think that many of the things I tried were positively injurious and from my own experience I cannot too strongly caution you against using preparations containing wood alcohol and other poisonous substances. I believe they injure the roots of the hair. After my long list of failures, I finally found a simple prescription which I can unhesitatingly state is beyond doubt the most wonderful thing for the hair I have ever seen. Many of my friends have also used it, and obtained wonderful effects therefrom. It not only is a powerful stimulant to the growth of the hair and for restoring gray hair to its natural color, but it is equally good for removing dandruff, giving the hair life and brilliancy, etc., and for the purpose of keeping the scalp in first-class condition. It also makes the hair easier to comb and arrange in nice form. I have a friend who used it two months ago and during that time it has not only stopped the falling of his hair and wonderfully increased its growth, but it practically restored all of his hair to its natural color. You can obtain the ingredients for making this wonderful preparation from almost any druggist. The prescription is as follows:

Boy Run, 6 oz. Menthol Crystals, 1/2 drachm; Lavone de Composes, 2 oz. If you like it perfumed add 1 drachm of your favorite perfume. This, however, is not necessary. Apply night and morning; rub thoroughly into the scalp.

INSPIRES ARTIST, WHO WEDS HER

Miss Gertrude MacFarlane Breach of Promise Plaintiff, Now Mrs. Sandona.

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 2.—"Your beauty inspires me! Oh, let me paint your portrait. Who knows but that it may immortalize us both?"

Miss Gertrude MacFarlane it was who was thus addressed by Matteo Sandona not so long ago. She consented. The portrait painting proceeded. Then Sandona made another request, which was answered completely yesterday at Red Bluff, where they were married.

Yet only a little while ago Miss Gertrude MacFarlane was suing Captain William Woodus Green, commander of the Japanese liner Chiyu Maru, for $51,000 for breach of promise. The suit was compromised by the gallant captain, who paid the lady $7000 or so just before he married the girl who conspired with him for his breach with Miss MacFarlane. The latter, it seems, had been married and divorced before she met the captain. The captain says she forgot to tell him about her first marriage and divorce. Miss MacFarlane, that was, retorted with statements uncompromising to the sailor's veracity, his gallantry as well, and began suit.

Prominent in social circles in Hawaii and this city, Miss MacFarlane is a famous beauty. Her father used to be chamberlain at the royal court of Honolulu. She met Captain Green on the Chiyu Maru. The voyage ended in their engagement, followed soon afterward by the sensational quarrel and suit. $50,000 being asked by the lady for her damaged heart and $1000 for a toussau that was not used.

OFFICER ATTACKED BY HUGE COYOTE

Constable Carroll Shoots Brute Which Fights Desperately to Escape.

FRUITVALE, Dec. 2.—A huge coyote was encountered and shot by Constable Tom Carroll at East Twenty-seventh street and Fruitvale avenue last night after the brute had put up a fight to escape. The coyote which weighed over 60 pounds, came out of Diamond canyon at midnight in search of food.

Carroll saw the animal slouching along in the shadow of the fence as he came out of his athletic grounds at East Twenty-seventh street. The coyote noticed the constable at the same instant and attempted to leap the fence, but Carroll was ready with his revolver and shot the hill denizen.

Despite its crippled condition the coyote, unable to escape, showed fight when Carroll approached, and attempted to spring at him. A second bullet finished the coyote.

PLAN STOCKTON FEEDER FOR OAKLAND-ANTIOCH

STOCKTON, Dec. 2.—An electric line connecting Stockton with the Oakland, Antioch & Eastern line is to be constructed. I. S. Boren, a wealthy Victoria Island farmer, agreed on behalf of the Delta Railway Company to furnish a third of the cost of two combination railroad and wagon bridges across Old and Middle rivers and pay $5000 toward grading four miles of road across Victoria Island. It is estimated that the bridges will cost $120,000.

Borden stated to the supervisors that it was proposed to construct the road as soon as possible. With J. M. Biggar of the Drexler tract and Eugene Wilhoit of the Byron tract, Borden stated that deeds for the right of way would be made out to the county and placed in escrow. District Attorney Politz was instructed to put the agreement in writing.

The road will shorten the distance between Stockton and San Francisco 12 miles and run through a rich island section by way of Brentwood.

Yegg Problems and Police Protection.

The murder of a Southern Pacific official by a train bandit, who shot his victim on flimsiest provocation, brings to attention the necessity of running down yeggs and other criminals by a more systematic method than is now employed by the police. The railroads have endeavored to obtain assistance of police departments in running down criminals, but it would seem that in many cities the average plain clothes man is more inclined to keep his apparel of the unstarred order clean, his shoes well blacked and shined and his hair parted in the middle, than he is to descend to the uncomfortable task of ferreting out bandits.

Sherlock Holmes may be an exaggeration, but with all the fun we poke at him, it would not be amiss for some of the brethren of the fat-fest brigade to emulate him. A dime novel effort to

It is said that taxpayers have an idea that policemen are paid to keep on their beats and "plain clothes men" to keep away from the comfortable saloon corner, the fat cigar and the man who isn't behind the gun.

It is seldom, if ever, that pickpockets can operate in any large city district without some sort of understanding with "alleged higher-ups" who have fallen by the wayside. This is particularly applicable to large cities. These birds of a feather flock with the yeggs that hold up trains and commit other crimes that startle society and make for America the saying that our protection for newcomers is far under the standard of Europe.

We cannot deny this allegation when we take the outrageous murder of the Southern Pacific official near Los Angeles Monday night into consideration.

The miserable brute that committed the crime must have been of such a criminal nature that he could easily have been spotted by men whose duty it should have been to locate such a creature.

With all the tremendous sums that taxpayers are compelled to pay to prevent the existence of thugs, there is apparently no progress in the matter of capturing thieves, or even a reasonably sure "suspect." Is our collective police system of the nation entirely delinquent? Is it necessary, after all, that we should acknowledge the efficiency of Mr. Sherlock Holmes?

That the yegg situation has aroused Eastern as well as Western cities is made evident by the crusade in St. Louis and Kansas City against the system of ordering criminal men and women to "leave town." One newspaper asks upon what principle is a man or a woman "given hours to leave town?"

"This was the ruling recently in the case of a man who had been made the object of a good deal of time and effort by local officialdom," adds the writer.

When an individual has given proof of criminal tendencies or practices, why foist him upon some other community which has not been placed upon its guard against him? If an individual has been guilty of a violation of the law why not punish him, instead of sending him elsewhere to evade detection if he can?

In instances where neither of these developments has been made, it is obviously unfair and improper for the authorities to interfere with an individual in one way or another.

The practice of giving offenders or "suspects" hours to leave town is at best a slovenly one. It is a shirking of responsibility. It might even be regarded as a confession of inability on the part of officers to perform their duties.

Suspicion isn't enough to warrant the condemning of an individual, or the injuring of an individual. Knowledge of criminal practices should lead to arrest and prosecution. The "hours to leave town" merely rolls the waters; it doesn't clarify them.

And, again, Mr. Sherlock Holmes becomes a rapidly looming necessity in the make-up of our police contingents.

A Chicago editor has started a newspaper in which he will endeavor to satisfy the demands of all his readers. If he succeeds he will not have to knock to enter the Hall of Fame.

From a news viewpoint someone ought to sit on the Mexican situation until it promises to bring forth the "ruth."

Growth of Electric Railways.

Financial operations embracing a bond issue of fifty million dollars and the obtaining of fourteen millions more of New York capital for further development of the Pacific Light and Power Company and the Los Angeles Railway Corporation are announced from the southern metropolis. The properties are said to be controlled by H. E. Huntington and the millionaire intends to greatly enhance the value of his electric system.

Report recently was that the corporations mentioned had formed a compact to develop properties in this section of the State. The report was denied, but recent activities in power properties in all parts of the State show what an enormous industry the creating of electric energy has become. It also forecasts the coming of the all-electric State line which Paul Shoup of the Pacific Electric Company and other progressive officials of the Southern Pacific Company have had in mind for some time.

The responsive mood with which the Los Angeles proposition of Huntington was received on the bond markets and in Eastern financial centers is indeed encouraging and proves that the world is trending toward the exclusive use of electricity as a motive power for trains. In Oakland we have seen the old-fashioned locomotive supplanted by a splendid electric interurban service that is gradually reaching out in all directions and carrying with it every evidence of perfect service and modernism. Soon will come the all-electric train service and the acme of triumph of Electra.

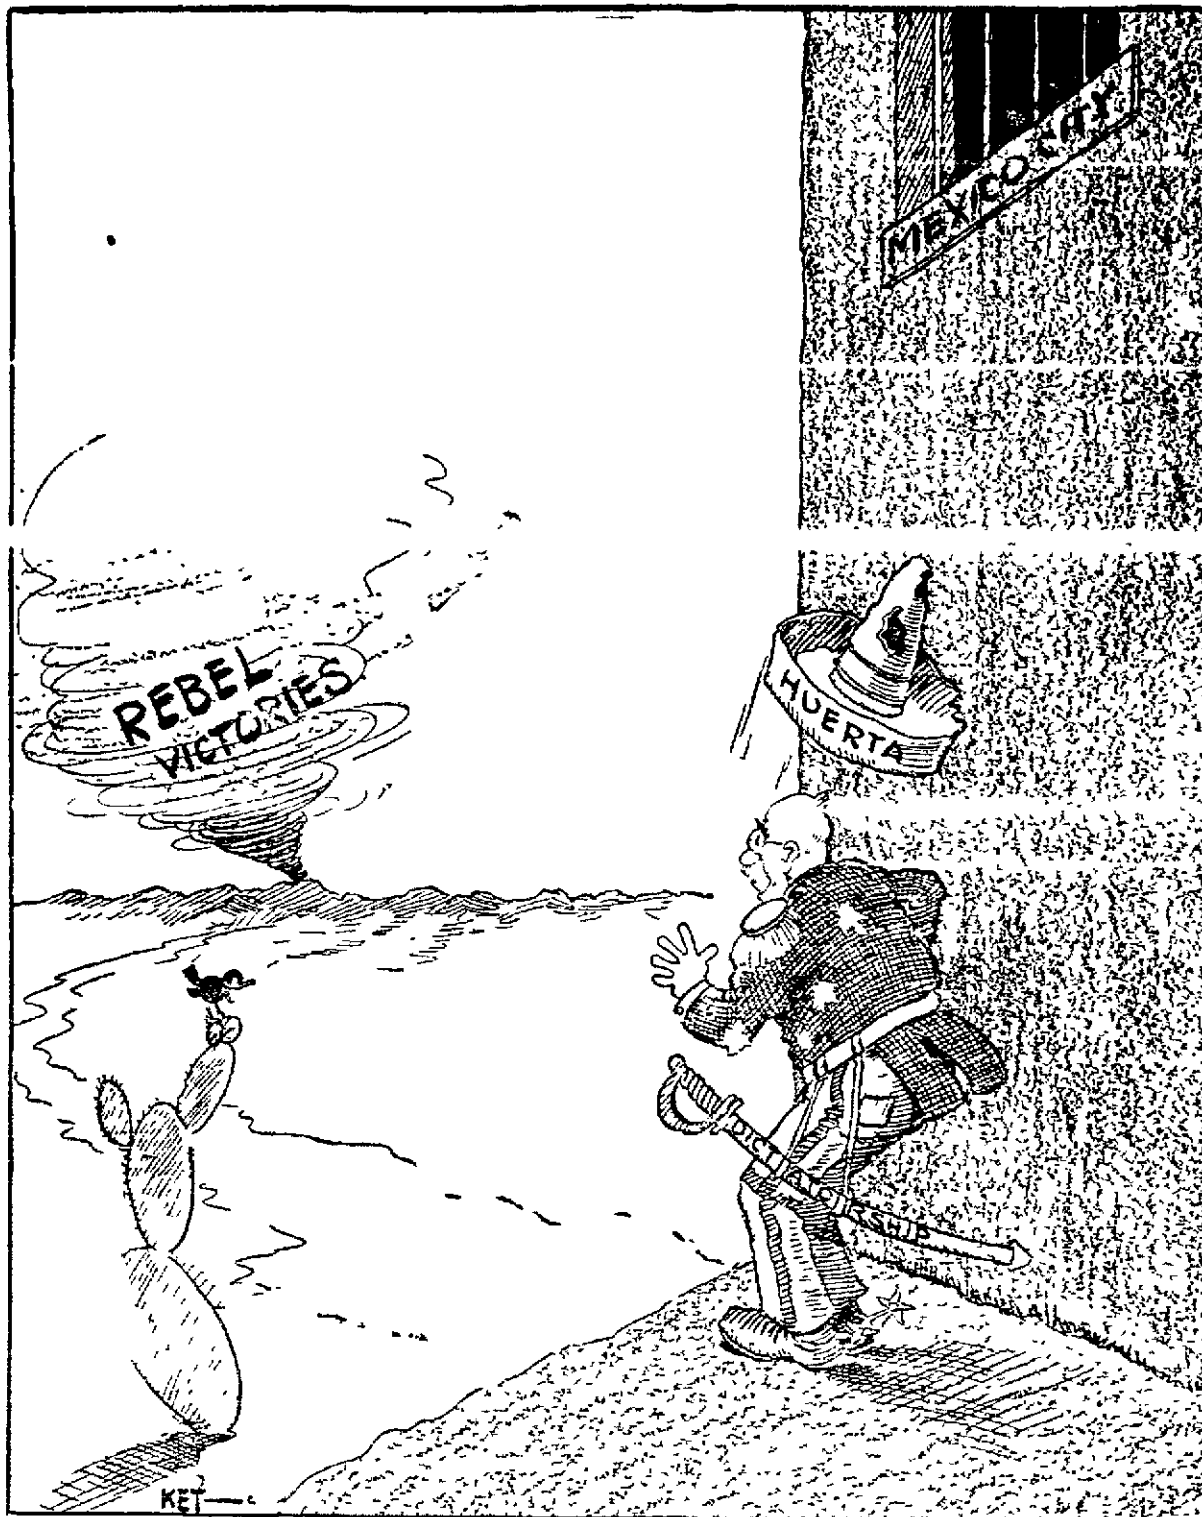

A serious engagement in Mexico usually means the killing off of all the prisoners.

BREWING IN THE NORTH

RALEIGH'S PEOPLE

Direct descendants of Sir Walter Raleigh's colonists are still to be found in the district they have inhabited for centuries, speaking the ancient dialect according to a writer in Blackwood's Magazine. One of Raleigh's expeditions sent out in 1587, under John White left 59 men, 17 women and two children in Virginia—as the whole eastern seaboard of North America was then called. A relief expedition sent out in 1589 could learn nothing of the colonists and the latest edition of the "Dictionary of National Biography" adds, "nor was any trace of them ever recovered." G. Cunningham Terry, in the magazine named, tells how while on a walking tour through the mountainous regions of Robeson county, North Carolina, he found direct descendants of the Elizabethan ventures who retain "the habits and speech of over 200 years ago. The father knickered at evening on the door of a log house. The door was opened by a tall, dark, thin, and deep blue eyes and instead of the usual American accent and phrase he used the words 'Loom in mind sit down here the hearth and warmen.' Over the doorway hung a perfect old croquet, a quaint old flint lock musket and some Indian tomahawks. An old loom, a pewter pot and an old English crane on which a kettle swung over the fire, were among the furniture.

Mr. Terry comments: "Not a day from roaring fuming New York I felt as if hypnotized. Had I dropped back 'the Roanoke White' to a past century or had I perchance stumbled into a haunted house?" Then his host, John Cotnam, in strange old world speech told of "the pure bred Indian and English ancestors from whom he claimed descent as did some 4000 others of his race. He spoke of the 'great trail' over which his 'feathers' (forefathers) had traveled westward from the desolate island of Roanoke in the days of Good Queen Bess and of the utter isolation in which he and his people lived there in the 'little corner of North Carolina' (unvisited by white men (negroes they will not admit) 'the world forgetting, by the world forgot'."

CURIOS BITS OF HISTORY

Militant minded women were known in England before the suffragettes, one of whom lies in Henry VII's chapel—Margaret, countess of Richmond its builder's mother, with her brass effigy by Torrigiano. She hated the Turk, and she made as Camden reports a sporting offer to the chivalrous of her day. "On the condition that princes of Christendom would combine themselves and march against the common enemy the Turk she would most willingly attend them and be their laundress in camp." That position of laundress to the crusaders would have been an easy one, for it was the fashion to make vows to change no underclothing until the holy sepulcher was regained. John Paul Jones was something more than sea fighter. After his great battle he knew brilliant days in Paris where Queen Marie Antoinette paid him attention and invited him to sit beside her at the opera. All the great ladies ran after him, and quite a few seriously lost their hearts to him. An American woman who met him in Paris wrote this account of him: "He is small of stature, well proportioned, soft in his speech, eas, in his address, polite in his manners, vastly civil, understands all the etiquette of a ladies' toilet as perfectly as he does the mast, sails and rigging of his ship. Under all the appearance of this softness he is bold, enterprising, ambitious and active." In the mouths of Wesley and Whitefield the repeated sermon became both necessary and effective. For the journeyed and found new hearers for old sermons. Wesley, for instance, traveled 4500 miles a year until he was well on towards three score years and ten and traveling, preached two, three and occasionally four times a day. With Whitefield particularly, the sermon gained by repetition. Thus writes his biographer: "It never reached its highest point of effectiveness until he had preached it forty times. Then it became on his lips a perfect instrument of persuasion." Whitefield, it has been calculated, preached over 18,000 sermons.

How to Detect the Alum Baking Powder

"Which are the alum baking powders; how can I avoid them unless they are named?" asks a housekeeper.

Here is one way: take the can of a low-priced powder in your hand and read the ingredient clause upon the back label. The law requires that if the powder contains alum that fact must be there stated. If you find one of the ingredients named alum, or sulphate of aluminum, you have found an alum baking powder.

don't have to know the names of the alum powders. Use Royal Baking Powder only; that assures you a cream of tartar powder, and the purest and most healthful baking powder beyond question.

THE BETTER WAY:

THE AVERAGE MAN TAKES ONE STEP AT A TIME.

The University of Wisconsin publishes for a nickel in its University Extension bulletins one by George M. Forbes, LL.D., entitled "Lessons Learned in Rochester," and it deals with the larger use of the public schools.

The new California law as to the wider use of the public school plant would permit, and some might so interpret it as to say that it requires the board of education to grant the use of the schools, among other purposes, for purely partisan political gatherings. The state of Wisconsin has a paid adviser in the civic and social center development department of its University Extension work. In the person of Dr. Edward J. Ward, but the state of Wisconsin does not permit partisan political meetings in the public school buildings.

However, where the citizens of any community organize into non-partisan, non-sectarian, non-exclusive associations, then the board of education has no choice, but must open the schools for use, with light, heat and janitor service paid for out of the taxes of these same citizens. And this they are doing in the Bauger state. Indeed, so far has this new conception and use of the public school plant developed that those who are interested can now find it fully set forth in a new volume published by D. Appleton & Co. called "The Social Center."

In Rochester, Dr. Forbes tells us in the little pamphlet, the plan has been tried out and it has, as Governor Hughes said, "outdistanced the foundations of democracy." All sides were heard, public officials came and told of their work, and free speech was allowed in these gatherings. The people insisted on hearing both sides of every question, according to Dr. Forbes, and did not "lose their heads" and were not "carried away" by radical utterances, so as to take any hasty or ill-considered action.

"Not a single instance of such action can be cited in the history of some twenty civic clubs in as many different neighborhood school buildings." "One of the most extreme socialists in Rochester publicly stated that his views had been seriously modified by the discussions in the civic clubs."

"They invited able representatives of the various parties to present on different occasions to a non-partisan body in a calm and dispassionate way their reasons for their political faith. Nothing could more effectively emancipate the average man from a blind and narrow partisanship born of tradition and prejudice."

Dr. Forbes summarizes: "The movement vindicated the opinion that the average man is a conservative or moderate Progressive, and will take only one step at a time in the path of progress."

BRADY ESTATE LARGE.

NEW YORK, Dec. 3.—The first hearing upon the appraisal of the estate of Anthony N. Brady, held yesterday by Transfer Tax Appraiser Charles M. Friend, indicated the assets of the estate will exceed $100,000. No definite announcement as to the value of the estate will be made until Friend makes his return to the state comptroller.

TAX INCREASE LARGE.

SACRAMENTO, Dec. 3.—Figures published yesterday purporting to show an increase of more than $6,000,000 in county taxes for 1913 over last year represent a biennial increase, according to the state comptroller's office. The same error occurred in the assessed valuations.

CHILD DEMOCRACY TO HOLD PRIMARY

40,000 New York Juveniles to Be Taught Self-government.

NEW YORK, Dec. 3.—On January 1 40,000 children of the lower East Side will vote in the first primary election of a "juvenile democracy" which is being organized by the East Side Protective Association to teach the future citizens of that section of the city self government and politics. The roll call will be at the public schools, and assemblymen, congressmen, mayor and commissioners of health, fire, street cleaning and other municipal departments will be nominated. Each voter will be supplied with blank pieces of paper on which he will write his choice for each office. There will be no party "hugess" primary.

The general election will be held on February 12, Lincoln's birthday, when candidates leading in the primary will be voted on.

As soon as they learned of the organization the girls of the Washington Irving high school sent a note to Harry R. Schacht, superintendent of the East Side Protective Association, demanding the right to vote, declaring that they were capable of handling the franchise to themselves.

When the girls from other East Side schools joined in the demand for the franchise Mr. Schacht decided to have two divisions to the vote, one for boys and one for girls. The girls will elect their own officers on February 22, Washington's birthday, and then establish a republic similar in every way to that of the boys.

BABES ARE NEGLECTED FAR FROM MOTHER

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 3.—Mrs. Ivy Sullivan, who is the wife of Mrs. Grace Lutter, 632 Fillmore street, stated out of "troubled blue and attractive eyes" last night at the most dazzling and serious problem she has ever encountered in her twenty-six years. Here is the problem that Mrs. Sullivan has to solve.

How to reach or regain her three children, ranging in age from 4 to 9 abandoned by their father, and without money in San Francisco. Mrs. Sullivan's knowledge of life's problems had taken her to all the charity organizations of San Francisco.

She found that they were maintained for stated purposes. Shipping destitute children to San Francisco is not one of them. She threatened three children from Salt Lake City to San Francisco is not one of them.

She said that her husband, Leonard Sullivan, a well-to-do man, left this city four weeks ago with these three children for Frederick Okie, the home of her mother. The children—Irvin, nine years old; Ivan, aged seven, and Vivian, aged four—never arrived at their destination. Yesterday she received a letter from the Pacific Hotel, Salt Lake City, saying the children had been abandoned two weeks ago by their father. Chief of Police White investigated and found that the children were still at the hotel.

Mrs. Sullivan said she would appeal to acting Mayor Jennings today to help her across the mountains to Salt Lake City or bring the children to San Francisco.

NEW COLLIER JUPITER TO MAKE TRIAL TRIP

VALLEJO, Dec. 3.—Orders were received at Mare Island yesterday for the collier Jupiter ready to leave for her trial trip on January 15. Some minor alterations will be made to the machinery of the vessel this month by the yard mechanics.

Mare Island officers have been advised that $25,000 was included in the naval appropriation bill for use at that station. Out of the amount $150,000 will be used for the purchase of additional machinery. The sum of $500,000 asked for by the yard officers for the improvement of the marine barracks, will in all probability be included in a special appropriation bill introduced by Secretary of the Navy Daniels.

WHEATLAND RIOT TRIAL GOES OVER TO JAN. 12

MARYSVILLE, Dec. 3.—The trial of the Wheatland riot murder suspects were continued yesterday by Judge McDaniel until January 12 on motion of Attorney Royce for the defense. Ford, Suhr, Bagen and William Beck, all charged with the murder of Marysville, will be put on trial at the same time. A motion for a change of venue was in all cases denied by the court. Few strangers appeared in the courtroom other than witnesses, and the expected 1,000 hordes did not appear.

BLOOD WRITING SEANCES.
EDITOR TRIBUNE: Referring to your item from Paris, France, of November 26, "Writing on arm of girl explained," I was under the impression that this trick had been so universally exposed that almost everyone was no conversant with it.

As I have been an active participant (self styled) traveled extensively, using "the blood writing" on the arm, mind spiritism and other fake methods of deception among spiritualists in select places circles of the university and for a time coined money. The professor was exposed by Professor Pepper of "Peppers Ghosts" fame of London.

Afterward Professor Baldwin traveled extensively in the United States from 1876 to 1878, using this and other fake methods in entertaining them for five nights in the week and exposing them on the sixth night after exacting a promise of secrecy on the part of the audience.

EXPENDITURE FOR ROADS DOUBLES

WASHINGTON, Dec. 3.—Expenditures in the United States for improvement of roads has more than doubled since 1904, according to figures compiled by the office of the public roads of the department of agriculture. In 1904 expenditures for this purpose amounted to $79,771,417, while in 1912 the total was $164,232,265, or an increase of $84,460,848.

It is shown that the greatest progress in road construction took place in those states that added in the work by appropriations out of their state funds. In 1904 there were 13 states that contributed $2,607,000, while in 1912 there were 35 that appropriated to the extent of $43,757,438.

The expenditures for this purpose in 1912 amounted to $4,844 per mile, which was double that of 1904, when the per mile outlay was $2,422. The states having the largest expenditures for state aid and trunk line roads in 1912 were: New York, $22,000,000; Pennsylvania, $4,000,000; Maryland, $3,370,000; Connecticut, $3,000,000.

COOKS GO IN CLASS WITH REAL ARTISTS
NEW YORK, Dec. 3.—Jean Milton, head chef of the Ritz-Carlton, was indicted by a federal grand jury yesterday on a charge of kidnapping his assistant as a cook from France, in violation of the contract labor law. Assistant United States Attorney Herstein said that the government contemplates similar action against all hotels that send agents abroad to hire cooks.

The defense raised the question whether a hotel had the same right as an opera director or theatrical producer to engage his talent abroad. Cooks, the hotel attorneys contend, are not laborers, but artists. It is also alleged that salaries paid to high-grade cooks and the waitresses they exact put them into the class with opera singers and other pampered stage people.

PASTOR INCORPORATES HIMSELF AND CHURCH
SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 3.—The New church, the Rev. Dr. N. New, D. D., filed articles of incorporation with the County Clerk yesterday. The purpose of the corporation is to appoint Dr. New a bishop, chief priest, presiding elder and Newological head of the church.

Also Dr. New is created into a body corporate and politic in order to give him legal capacity.

The New church is organized to "promote the Newology of life, health, happiness, prosperity, immortality, eternal youth, beauty and peace, that humanity may overcome its sins and errors, poverty, disease, death."

Teachers will be sent forth to instruct dent and L. L. Tully secretary of the church.

WHIPPED FOR 50 CENTS.
STOCKTON, Dec. 3.—A tramp accosted John Beckley, a husky lumberjack with a demand for 50 cents.

"It's yours if you can stand up with me in a fist fight for five minutes," said Beckley. They mixed. The tramp collected 50 cents. Beckley collected a black eye and a swollen jaw.

"BOSSISM" DENOUNCED.
DENVER, Dec. 3.—A organization along national party platform lines and the elimination of bosses was decided upon yesterday at a meeting of 40 Progressives. The meeting was a direct result of a conference of prominent leaders of the party 18 days ago, at which time they suggested E. P. Costigan as the party's standard bearer again in the gubernatorial campaign. No names were mentioned, but resolutions were adopted denouncing the assumption of bossism by certain party leaders.

Friends Can Be Won,
But This Man's Task
Has Just Begun

CHICAGO, Dec. 3.—In an effort to issue a newspaper that will satisfy the demands of all its readers, A. H. Senke of Gary, Indiana, editor of the Slavish Daily, has begun the publication of his paper in six different languages—Italian, Bohemian, Croatian, Polish, Hungarian and English. Since the new feature was originated several days ago complaints have been fewer, but the Serbian and Russian subscribers are now demanding "their rights." Most of the subscribers are steel workers.

BURGERS OPERATE IN VARIOUS PARTS OF CITY

Burglars who operated in various parts of the city last night secured $250 in coin and other loot valued at as much again. The home of Mrs. C. R. Roper, at 758 Seventh street, was entered by the members of the family were at dinner last evening, and the burglar took $20 in gold.

Another burglar entered the saloon of V. E. Bassett, 383 Eleventh street, by climbing over the transom of the front door and secured $85 from the cash register. The room of Albert Perry, at 339 Seventh street, was burglarized and articles valued at $50 stolen. A sneak thief used a pass key to enter the room of Jack Tracy, 1115 Jefferson street, where he secured $25 in coin.

STANFORD-CALIFORNIA
GAME COST HIM $60

Clare Crossfield, one of the leading spirits in the University club, will handle no more Stanford-California game tickets for after counting up his receipts and expenditures, he finds that he is loser by about $60.

As is the usual custom, the University club bought several hundred extra tickets for the game, and sold them to its members. It had been decided this year not to do this, but Crossfield, declaring that the custom should be followed, did it, buying the tickets with his own funds. Stanford is a long trip home, and not a few were sure of the weather. When the game was over Crossfield had a large pile of tickets to console him for his failure.

SEES SIGHTS; COIN STOLEN.
SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 3.—Samuel P. Ehorn of Orland, Glenn county, arrived here yesterday and registered at the Perry House, at Embarcadero and Mission streets. Soon after he left to spend the evening, seeing the lights, a burglar entered his apartments and stole all of his valuables amounting to $120.

SUFFRAGETTES INVADE U. S. CAPITOL

1000 Delegates Urge Creation of House Committee.

Representative Raker Speaks for the Suffrage Resolution.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 3.—The suffrage convention was suspended for a moment on the capitol to urge a favorable report by the House rules committee on a resolution to create a standing committee on woman suffrage in the House.

The scene resembled a charge on a citadel when more than 1,000 suffrage delegates closed in on the capitol. The women advanced in regimental formation and crowded the hearing room.

Dr. Anna Howard Shaw, president of the National American Women Suffrage Association, had charge of presenting arguments for a committee. She told the members it was not the purpose of the speakers to convert the congressmen to suffrage, but to convince them that the suffrage movement was entitled to a House committee equivalent to a similar one in the Senate.

Representative Raker of California spoke for his resolution, which would provide for a suffrage committee of thirteen members.

A resolution by Representative Kelly, Progressive of Pennsylvania, was adopted, providing that the final vote of the committee of the women's suffrage should be taken in public.

RESCUES WHITE SLAVE SISTER

Louis Slager Finds Betrayed Girl After Five-Year Search.

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 3.—Dawning in his arms his sister, for whom he had been searching for five years, Louis Slager of New York City sat in the Central police station yesterday afternoon and told a pathetic story. When Lily Slager, a pretty 11-year-old girl, disappeared from her home, 509 East One Hundred and Thirty-sixth street, New York City, five years ago, her parents and brother suspected she had eloped with one Jacob Wolf Woborsky, who was known to be a married man, possessed of a shady reputation. Young Slager swore revenge and further swore that his parents that he would search for her until he had rescued his sister and brought justice to the man who wrecked her life.

The young man traced his sister from New York to Detroit, thence to Chicago, St. Paul, Superior, Wis.; Duluth, Minn.; Winnipeg, Man.; Vancouver, B. C.; Seattle, Tacoma, Portland, San Francisco, Los Angeles, Sacramento, Chico and Stockton. In the last-named city Lily Slager was found yesterday by Detective Wisnitch.

Two days ago, Slager's weary search for him came to a sudden end when he found the man on the street. Detective Joseph Redmond of the white slave squad was with Slager at the time. He arrested Woborsky and prevented Slager from killing the prisoner. Through Woborsky it was found that the girl was in Stockton.

The Federal authorities will take charge of Woborsky's case. He will in all probability be prosecuted under the Mann act. Slager worked his way from town to town, being eluded until two days ago by his quarry. He will take his sister to their home in New York.

SOUTHERN EDITORS TO VISIT OAKLAND

Association Will Be Entertained at Banquet Under Commercial Club's Auspices.

Editors from all parts of Southern California will be Oakland's guests Saturday and Sunday when under the auspices of the Commercial Club, the visiting members of the Southern California Editorial Association will be entertained at a banquet and a ride about the city. The banquet will take place Saturday night at the Hotel Oakland, when the guests will arrive from San Francisco, where they will be visitors. Sunday morning they will see Alameda county's points of interest from the automobiles of the Commercial Club members.

The committee in charge of the reception and entertainment of the southern editors will consist of Dr. George C. Farwell, chairman, John F. Connors, vice chairman, D. E. Perkins, G. B. Daniels and Francis Smith.

The itinerary for the auto ride will include Highland drive, the new city hall, and several other scenic routes of the east bay region.

The Commercial Club directors last night met to endorse Richmond's harbor plans, as requested by the Sequoia Commercial Club of that city; the tri-county ferry project, and also ordered plans made for the reception of the 2000 delegates to the California Teachers' Association convention, which will be in Oakland on December 29. The teachers will be shown about the city and other affairs will be planned for their entertainment.

Football Player's Neck Found Broken

FINFIELD, Kas., Dec. 3.—Fred Hamilton, left halfback on the Southwestern College football team, is in a local hospital with his neck broken and paralyzed in both arms. His injuries were not believed serious until an X-ray picture showed the fifth vertebrae fractured.

Hamilton was injured in the Thanksgiving game with the Pittsburg Normal team.

HOLD MERGER CONFERENCE MEET

Proposed Unification of Commercial Organization Considered by Committee.

Entire Matter to Be Gone Into Thoroughly and Plans Submitted.

The first of the meetings of the conference committee to consider the organizations at which representatives of the Chamber of Commerce, where H. C. Capwell first brought the matter to a head; the Merchants' Exchange, the Manufacturers' Committee, and the Commercial Club, which was ranked by the others to appoint a committee, are thrashing out the details of the plan, was called to order this afternoon at the Chamber of Commerce directors' room. The delegates present were: F. W. Leavitt and F. W. Bigler, alternates for chairman; Fred Kahn, B. A. Forrester, R. A. Leet and O. E. Hottle.

Merchants' Exchange—H. G. Williams, Theodore Gier, W. L. Harrington and J. C. Downey.
Chamber of Commerce—H. C. Capwell, Dr. George C. Farwell, A. Jones, George Hatch and E. A. Young.
Manufacturers' Committee—John Scott, John Phillips, F. W. Bigler, A. H. Irving and Curtis Wright Jr.

RETRACTION NOT DEMANDED.
Secretary Denison today declared that no official demand had been made by the chamber board of directors that he retract his charges of "dirty work" made against Secretary Fred Boegle of the Manufacturers' Committee in connection with the move. This was urged at the joint meeting between the two, but no official demand can be made until the next meeting of the board.

When the demand is made formally it will determine as to whether or not I will retract," Denison said. Asked if there was a possibility of a Boegle shaking hands and becoming friends again, the secretary refused to answer.

Denison urged today that Boegle was according to the terms by which Boegle was employed, his assistant merely assigned to the manufacturers. He declared that the chamber paid the secretary's salary. He admitted that an extra dollar was added to the committee's monthly dues for this, but he declared that this was a very simple one. They do not handle any money or president. If you are inclined to be charitable at Christmas time they will send you the name or names of poor children so that you can look after them, and so that the names of the committee are self-absolute. It is sufficient to say absolute. The committee is composed of very prominent people of Oakland who desire to do this charitable work without the blare of trumpets.

CITY'S WELFARE CONSIDERED.
"This matter is not one of any personal fight, in any shape," said F. W. Leavitt, speaking of the proposed consolidation. "It is simply a matter of what is the best thing for the City of Oakland. There should not be several organizations. It is economic waste. There must be some way out of it, and that is what the committee is to straighten up. It is simply a matter of the common good, and expending our money to the best advantage."

The meeting this afternoon will be followed by more sessions at which the entire matter will be gone into thoroughly and all plans prepared for submission to the members of the organizations.

Former Senator Frank W. Leavitt, chairman of the committee appointed by the Commercial Club to confer at today's meeting on the proposed merger of Oakland's commercial organizations, yesterday was host at a luncheon given at the Hotel Oakland to members of the committee. The issue was informally discussed, and the Commercial Club's view of the matter gone into. The members of the committee gave their ideas, and a working basis for their participation in the conference was mapped out.

The committee is composed of Leavitt, the host, B. A. Forrester, R. A. Leet, Fred Kahn and O. E. Hottle.

MISSING SCHOONER IS SAFE, REPORTED

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 3.—The missing schooner Alvarado, which cleared from the Columbia river on April 1 for Antofagasta, Chile, was abandoned at sea June 13 and the crew of eleven made their way safely to Easter Island. This was the gist of a wireless message from the steamer Moano, received today by the San Francisco Chamber of Commerce.

Women Judges Not Compelled to Give Age, Rules Judge

CHICAGO, Dec. 3.—Chicago women who qualify as judges and clerks of elections will not have to tell their ages. The provision was granted yesterday by County Judge Owens, who will make the appointments. "Legal age" will be a satisfactory answer to the question concerning age qualification.

Nearly 300 applications have been received from women who wish to serve as judges or clerks of elections. Appointments probably will be made within the next two weeks.

WILL YOU MAKE CHRISTMAS MERRY FOR THESE CHILDREN?

Let It Be Your Yuletide Joy to Bring Christmas Cheer in Person to the Poor Tots of Those Who Need

The destitute and worthy little children of Oakland are going to have a Merry Christmas. They are going to have their Christmas stockings filled in a quiet and unostentatious way by a select committee of people who are going to do the work from a purely charitable point of view.

Every year there have taken care of thousands of destitute worthy children of Oakland at Christmas time. The plan by which they work is a very simple one. They do not handle any money or president. If you are inclined to be charitable at Christmas time they will send you the name or names of poor children so that you can look after them, and so that the names of the committee are self-absolute. It is sufficient to say absolute. The committee is composed of very prominent people of Oakland who desire to do this charitable work without the blare of trumpets.

COMMITTEE INVESTIGATES CASES.
The committee investigates the cases of the poor children, ascertains the names of the little ones and then finds a business who will make it their particular business to see that certain poor destitute little children will have a happy Christmas.

"Now if you want to help the poor children of Oakland this is how you can do so. Send a letter addressed to the committee, care of Oakland TRIBUNE, giving the following information:
My name is
I live at No.
I will be pleased to provide some kind of Christmas cheer for the children of Oakland (write in the number of children).

CHARITY WITHOUT PUGLIFICITY.
THE TRIBUNE is going to give its space to this very worthy charity. Last year over three thousand poor children were provided with Christmas cheer by means of this system. No publicity is given to anyone connected with the charity. You simply send your name and address and say how many little children you will make happy at Christmas time, and the committee will send you names and addresses of the children, having investigated their homes and knowing that they are worthy of your assistance at the holiday season.

IS THERE ANYBODY IN OAKLAND WHO WOULD NOT HELP A DESTITUTE WORTHY CHILD TO BE HAPPY AT CHRISTMAS TIME?

EDITOR TRIBUNE: Last Christmas and New Year's eve you and I went out for a good time and spent from $10 to $200. Last Christmas morning over 3,000 children awoke in our city to an empty stocking and the bitter pain of disappointment that Santa Claus had forgotten them. Perhaps it wasn't our fault. We had provided for our own. We had thoughtlessly reflected in a passing way on these less fortunate than our own, but they were far off and we did not know of their existence. Perhaps in now or where we were, we had to do some of us didn't think of the heart sorrow of the child over the empty stocking.

Now, old man, here's a chance. I have tried it for the past two years and ask you to consider it. Just send your name and address to THE TRIBUNE, stating how many children you are willing to protect against grief and sorrow over that empty stocking, enclose a 2-cent stamp and you will be furnished with the names and addresses, sex and age of that number of children. It is then up to you, you do the rest. Select your own present, spend your cents or fill and send these your gifts to those children on Christmas eve. You do not have to pay a cent more than you want to—your gift is presented as you wish to expend it—every present goes just where you want it to go. You gain neither notoriety or advertising, you deal with no organization; no record will be kept of your letter will be returned to you with its answer. The whole plan is just as anonymous as old Santa Claus himself.

NOT A NEWSPAPER SCHEME.
This is not a newspaper scheme. THE TRIBUNE was asked to aid in reaching the Good Fellows of this city by publishing this suggestion and to receive your communication in order that you may the anonymous character of this work. The identity of the writer of this appeal will not be disclosed. He only assumes the responsibility of finding the children and through THE TRIBUNE sending you their names and guarantees that whatever you bestow will be deserved. The only satisfaction that you or I get out of this is the feeling that we have saved some child from sorrow on Christmas morning. If this is not enough for you, then you have wasted your time in reading this article. If you are not a Good Fellow, you are not a Good Fellow. Perhaps a 5-cent coin or a 2-cent stamp wouldn't mean much to the children you know, but to the child who would find them in the otherwise empty stocking they mean much—the difference between utter despair and the joy of Christmas.

Here, old man, and Good Fellow, is a chance for you and me to get in. The charitable institutions attend to the bread and meat and other necessities, but let's you and the rest of the Good Fellows of Oakland furnish the Christmas joy.

THE COMMITTEE.

EDITOR TRIBUNE: Two years ago I wrote the above letter to the Good Fellows of Oakland and requested THE TRIBUNE to publish it and guarantee its good faith. It did. The Good Fellows, both women and men, are several hundred strong, and made Christmas real to 1500 children that Santa Claus had never been able to find before.

The purpose of that letter, and the plan it set forth, was not a newspaper scheme, but the aid of a newspaper was necessary to its success. THE TRIBUNE accepted the responsibility. The writer thought the responses would not be so many and that he could handle the necessary correspondence, but within a day the letters were piled up. He found the number of "Good Fellows" so great that the rush was beyond the ability of any individual to handle. Then THE TRIBUNE came again to the front and at its own expense, provided the offices and an organized writing force necessary to put the Good Fellows in touch with the children whose empty Christmas stockings they wanted to fill.

EVERY PROMISE KEPT.
My dear Good Fellows, when you answered that letter you felt that you were taking a chance, but now you KNOW that the letter and everybody connected with it was on the square. Every promise has been kept. You spent your own money in your own way, and every cent of it went just where you wanted it to go. You did it all yourself. Your best friend doesn't know that you were one of the Order of Good Fellows unless you undertake to do for us and the children what it did for you.

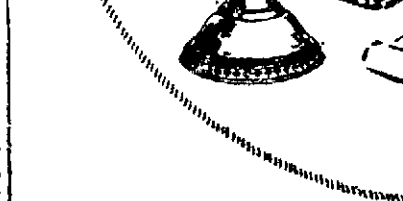

Now, Good Fellows, here's your chance again. We're going to do this Christmas what we did two years ago, but we're going to do it harder and better. We know the fun we got out of it, the joy we brought to those "sides" and we're going to do it again. We're going to be published above; send in your names, get busy, and we'll make Santa Claus real to every child in Oakland.

TRIBUNE AGAIN AT WORK.
THE TRIBUNE is at work again, with the work of finding the Good Fellows of Oakland in touch with the children who otherwise would have no Merry Christmas.

Two years ago the original Good Fellows letter was not published until December 1st. This year, however, we have made it somewhat difficult to get it, and we have secured a number of those who were in need of it, kindly ministrations of Good Fellows. This year, however, plans for service names and addresses were not so many and THE TRIBUNE feels certain that it will be more successful than that of two years ago.

To get the needed information: I live at street. I will be Santa Claus to care in the names of children who are in need of it.

SOME COMMITTEE.
Quickly enough, some addresses retain popularity in spite of the health and beauty hints they write for the newspapers. Or do they write them?

WHY IS A DUCK? WHEN IS A DUCK?

District Attorney Harris of San Leandro Asks Witness to Solve Problems.

SAN LEANDRO, Dec. 3.—Where do ducks roost? or do they roost? Also, when do they rest?

Important and at the same time amusing evidence turned upon the question of the nocturnal habits of ducks in the examination of Charles Peters of San Le-

Judge D. U. Toffelmier of a charge of assault with a deadly weapon. The charge against Peters was brought by Deputy Game Warden J. H. Thiel. Peters was represented by Attorney T. V. Eddy. It was alleged that Peters fired a shot in the direction of Deputy Game Warden Thiel, who said he had suspicions that Peters was out hunting ducks in the early hours of the morning.

That the duck is not a dissipated bird and does not keep late or rather early hours was brought forth in the evidence of Private Detective J. S. Labowitz, who makes for the defense. Labowitz said Peters could not have been out shooting ducks at 3 o'clock in the morning, as there were no ducks there at that time to shoot.

Deputy District Attorney Harris, for the people—"Did you examine the trees down near the bay and could find no trace of ducks roosting there. There did not appear to be any ducks shot."

Peters in defense said he thought the deputy game warden were trespassers who were hunting on his property and he fired to scare them.

CHURCH WORKERS LOOK FOR RECORD SALES
ELMHURST, Dec. 3.—A bazaar and New England dinner to be given by the Ladies' Aid of the Presbyterian church here in Redman's hall, will be two big attractions in Elmhurst, Saturday, December 6. The Ladies' Aid look for a total clearance of all the good things they have collected for sale, including fancy articles, cakes and candy. These articles will make a tempting display on a number of prettily decorated booths which will be presided over by members of the Ladies' Aid. The bazaar, which is an annual affair, is being planned with the object of making a record sale. An elaborate menu of home cooked articles will compose the New England dinner. As members of the aid are culinary experts the dinner should not lack patronage. The fair will be capped by an entertainment in the hall in the evening in which the children of the church will take part.

Mrs. A. W. Martin, president of the Ladies' Aid, will preside over the bazaar. The principal booth attendants will be: Fanny, Mrs. H. Hill, home cooking, Mrs. C. N. Cooper, candy, Mrs. J. Peterson, refreshments, Mrs. P. Chestnut. The proceeds from the bazaar will go towards the church.

ENGAGEMENT ANNOUNCED OF MISS ERMA RIDEOUT

SAN LEANDRO, Dec. 3.—One of the surprises of the Thanksgiving season is the announcement of the engagement of two popular young society people of San Leandro, Miss Erma Rideout and Chas. Savage. The bride-to-be is the daughter of Postmaster C. Q. Rideout, and is one of the loveliest members of the younger set of this city. Savage is connected with the firm of Scott, Magner & Miller of Oakland. He has made San Leandro his home for the past four years, and has a large circle of friends in San Leandro and other cities about the bay. The date for the wedding has not been set, but some rumor says it will be in the early spring.

SAN LEANDRO EDITORS LIVE "BOOSTING" WIRES

SAN LEANDRO, Dec. 3.—Boosting in cold print isn't sufficient for San Leandro's two energetic editors who have pressed their automobiles into service to better advertise their town. Wherefore Editor Pete Zambresky shut up shop yesterday morning, or rather left his duties on the job, and showed prospective settlers round the town and its outskirts. Zambresky whisked the visitors round in his powerful touring car. Editor Fred Curr is singing the praises of San Leandro as he whisks through Central California on an auto tour. Curr is an Oregon life wire who has lately made San Leandro his home city.

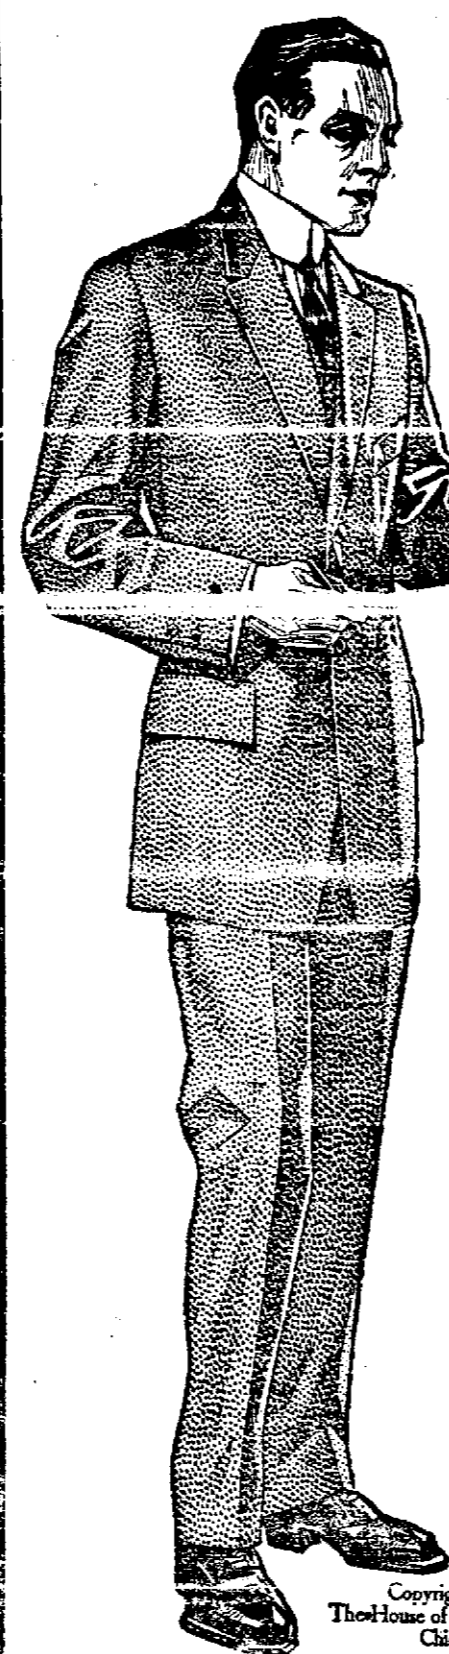

SAN LEANDRO COURT TO BE GUEST OF S. F.

SAN LEANDRO, Dec. 3.—Members of San Leandro Court of Honor No. 756, will attend festivities to be held by Alora Court No. 1187 of San Francisco December 11. The San Francisco Court is planning a big time, including a musical entertainment. Several of the officers of San Leandro Court will be guests of their transbay brethren.

HAYWARD BOY SCOUTS TO SING OF TURKEY

HAYWARD, Dec. 3.—"My Turkey 'Tis of Thee" is one of the soulful numbers to be rendered by Hayward Boy Scout vocalists at the entertainment to be held this evening in conjunction with the church bazaar, which is being held this afternoon and evening. A brisk sale was conducted by the booth attendants this afternoon. Fancy articles suitable for Christmas gifts, delicatessen and all kinds of home cooking comprise the tempting articles on sale. A mystery booth and a Rebekah at the Well are also attractions. The Scouts will have a share in the entertainment in the evening. Mrs. Brown of Berkeley will sing and Miss Mortimer, also of the university city, will recite.

LOCATE THEIR "LITTLE CLARENCE" IN ALAMEDA

HAYWARD, Dec. 3.—Standing 6 feet 1 inch, and weighing 190 pounds, although but 14 years of age, Clarence Flores, despite his physical fitness to look after himself, gave his parents considerable anxiety when he disappeared from home a week ago and they are relieved now that their strapping son has been located in Alameda. Clarence left the home of his father, Joseph Flores, in this city, a week ago with the intention of making a quick trip to Oakland. He failed to return and Constable W. J. Ramage set about investigation. The missing lad has been discovered in Alameda and will probably be brought back to his parents.

Good Roads for Telephone Talk

THE good roads movement has not been confined to the highways. The Bell Telephone System has covered the country with "good roads" for telephone talk, reaching every nook and corner.

There are more than 12,000,000 miles of these "good roads" in the Bell System. Some of them are strung in single pairs or in aerial cables from pole to pole; others are hidden away in underground conduits; they cross lofty mountain chains; pass under mighty rivers and reach the heart of each industrial and commercial center of the nation and to the most remote habitations.

These "good telephone roads" of the Bell System are all operated by one system, under one policy, forming one continuous system of intercommunication. They connect more than 7,500,000 telephones for universal service.

HETCH-HETCHYITES TRY TO FORCE ISSUE

SAN FRANCISCO WANTS CENTER OF THE ARENA

Mayor Rolph's Secretary Occupies Water Convention Time Without Gaining Much of Its Favor

W have been the general topic of discussion at the women's water convention yesterday, but it was a battle of Hetch-Hetchy all over again. It began with Hetch-Hetchy and ended with Hetch-Hetchy, and every speaker who had anything to say that conflicted with the Hetch-Hetchy project was immediately assailed or contradicted, and even accused of being a Hetch-Hetchyite.

The discussion from San Francisco's side of the case was frustrated by the presence of the Hetch-Hetchy scheme. Evidently their idea was that the convention was called to endorse the Hetch-Hetchy project and had no other business in hand.

Edward Rainey, Mayor Rolph's secretary, was as busy as a bird dog. His concentrated activity reminded one of Lord Jacob Astley's prayer at the battle of Edgehill: "Lord, thou knowest I must be a busy man today. If I forget thee, don't forget me." He was in a combative mood. When Eugene J. Sullivan of San Francisco sat down after making a short talk about Mokelumne river and the Blue lakes, in which he is interested, Rainey petulantly said: "I don't blame Mr. Sullivan; he does not blame me."

He then made a personal attack on Henry P. McDonald of Stockton by producing some photographic copies of McDonald's private correspondence to contradict McDonald's assertion that he had no interest in the Eel river project.

DIDN'T CARE, ANYWAY.

Those present did not care a button whether McDonald had any interest in the Eel river project or not, nor did they think it worth while to inquire how Rainey came to be in possession of photographic copies of McDonald's private correspondence.

The attack on McDonald, however, served to distract attention of the spectators and somewhat break the force of certain statements made about a large amount of the data on which Engineer Freeman's report was based.

McDonald said the Freeman report was based on data furnished by Engineer C. E. Grunsky. He said Grunsky had reported on half a dozen or more projects without having had sufficient time to examine any one of them. All these reports were dated about the same time and the period covering the investigation of all was the same, about two and a half months. Hence, he said, he could not personally make the examination required to pass upon projects of this character. While he did not question Grunsky's integrity or his skill as an engineer, he said he gravely doubted the reliability of his figures and the fairness of his report. He gave instances of Grunsky's inaccuracy.

COST OF CONCRETE.

McDonald said he had quoted $4.75 a cubic yard as the cost of laying concrete in the projected dam at Hetch-Hetchy, this cost being based upon a ground. For the Blue lakes proposition, with cement estimated to cost $2.75 delivered, he had placed the cost of concrete construction at $9 a cubic yard and by so doing had increased the cost of the imaginary dam on the Mokelumne river by 65 per cent.

Another discrepancy with the same effect, said McDonald, was in Grunsky's report on the Feather river project. He estimated the cost of a 2 1/2 mile tunnel on the Feather river at a larger figure than he estimated the cost of the Mokelumne river project. The basis of comparison, he said, was in every instance unfair to every other project and manifestly too favorable to Hetch-Hetchy.

McDonald said he represented the irrigationists of Stanislaus county and denied having any personal interests in any of the schemes which had been considered as a water supply for San Francisco. He said the irrigation people had employed him to make certain investigations for them and it was in connection with those investigations that the letters, photographic copies of which were produced by Rainey were written.

ALWAYS IN POLITICS.

Mrs. Lillian Harris Coffin, a San Francisco lady, enlivened the proceedings later in the afternoon by stating that the Hetch-Hetchy proposition was political from start to finish. It started in politics, was now in politics, and had always been in politics. She said no one could get elected to office in San Francisco who was not in favor of Hetch-Hetchy and announced that she had written to San Francisco would vote for Hetch-Hetchy and would advise anyone who was not for Hetch-Hetchy.

This brought Miss Mollie E. Connors to her feet with the statement that she was glad to learn from the lips of a San Francisco woman that the Hetch-Hetchy scheme was a political project.

"I understand how why they are attempting to force it on us," she continued. Oakland people will have something to say about it tomorrow and about San Francisco people will have something to say about it tomorrow. I for one am not ready to accept all he says without investigation. We do not have to go to San Francisco for water or to Hetch-Hetchy. From statements made here and not denied by the Hetch-Hetchy project, we can develop from the resources at its command a daily supply of 200,000,000 gallons, and yet they come over and tell us that people are compelled to get their drinking water from sprinkling carts and that they have so little water that they have not enough to wash their babies in. We have our own water, our own harbor system and we know how to manage our own business, and we don't propose that San Francisco shall have any gold brick to us. Before we are through with this discussion I think some of the sliding will be knocked on the track they are presenting here.

TALKS HETCH HETCHY.

Mrs. George Frederick took the chair at the opening of the session and called on J. D. Galloway, an engineer, residing in Berkeley, who was billed to speak on "The Bay Section's Water Problem." Galloway began and ended with Hetch-Hetchy. He recited the famous efforts San Francisco had made to procure a water supply, beginning with the employment of General Alexander and Professor George Davidson in 1871. Leo Scowden subsequently made investigations looking to water supply for San Francisco and later General George H. Mendell of the United States army was employed for the same purpose.

Galloway did not inform his hearers that General Mendell reported the Mokelumne river and Blue lakes as the cheapest source of supply for San Francisco. All the engineers employed at different times by San Francisco passed by the Tuolumne river and Mayor James Phelan made a location in Hetch-Hetchy valley before any survey had been made. Afterward C. E. Grunsky was employed to report on Hetch-Hetchy and all alternative sources of supply. He was committed to the Hetch-Hetchy project before he was employed and his business was to make the best possible showing for Hetch-Hetchy and the worst possible showing for every other project.

Which explains, perhaps, why General Mendell's report on the Mokelumne river has not received any consideration and why the Bartel report on the same source made in 1912 was of army engineers.

GALLOWAY HAS SAY.

Galloway took a shy at the Mokelumne river and without giving any details or any figures said it was insufficient and unavailable. He disposed of the Sacramento project by saying it had been reported on unfavorably by Freeman, Mr. Tibbets, consulting engineer of Richmond, quoted from the appendix of the Freeman report showing that Engineer Allen Hazen and Professor Hyde of the State University had made unfavorable reports about the Sacramento as a source of supply. He said the cost of installing a plant was small to the cost of bringing water from the mountains, but they included in the cost of the Sacramento system the capitalized expense of pumping, which would be saved in a gravity system.

Tibbets is not preparing to construct a plant to bring water from the Sacramento river to the town of Richmond and hence felt impelled to contradict the statement that he had recommended an expensive system to bring in polluted water. Tibbets pointed out that Sacramento, fourth city in the state in size, is now and had been for many years, supplied with water pumped from the Sacramento river. Many towns above Sacramento derive their water supply from the river and drink it straight without filtration. Antioch draws its water supply from the San Joaquin river near its mouth and uses it raw. He added that Antioch and Sacramento are preparing to construct filtration plants.

Galloway made light of the protest of the irrigationists. He said that they did not know why they wanted so much water, anyhow, and were probably using more than they ought to use because in some places it had been necessary to install a system of sub-drainage. He said while the people of Modesto and Turlock were complaining of not having enough water, the people of Stockton were asking the government to protect them from the floods of the San Joaquin river.

HART TURNS FLANKS.

General W. H. H. Hart, who simply made a general talk on the water question without committing himself any further than to say that San Francisco could get water from many other sources without going to Hetch-Hetchy, neatly turned Galloway's flanks by saying the water that floods Stockton does not come from the San Joaquin river. It comes from the Mokelumne, the Calaveras and the Consumnes. "The San Joaquin river does not run within 10 miles of Stockton," he said. "Stockton is connected with the San Joaquin river by a slough and the water from the mountains which comes in back of the city during the wet seasons never gets into the San Joaquin or Sacramento until the San Joaquin has flooded."

Galloway accepted the data and recommendations of the Grunsky, Freeman and army board report as "true beyond question." He suggested that the women appoint a committee and investigate the subject and make report thereon. He then made his suggestion unnecessary and superfluous by saying: "The sole and ultimate solution for San Francisco and all the cities around San Francisco bay will be to get drinking water from the Tuolumne river with the Hetch-Hetchy dam."

TIBBETS EXPLAINS.

Fred H. Tibbets explained the conditions which confronted Richmond and why he had been employed to report on a scheme for supplying Richmond with water from an independent source. He said the Hetch-Hetchy project had not been considered because Richmond needed to have water now and not some time in the remote future. He said, "We will install a water system and have it in operation in one-tenth the time San Francisco has been discussing the Hetch-Hetchy project. Richmond cannot afford to wait."

He might have added that Richmond didn't have any reliable data other than the Freeman estimate that the cost of bringing water from Hetch-Hetchy would be over $77,000,000, exclusive of the cost of acquiring the Spring Valley plant. Subsequently Tibbets volunteered

BANDIT-SLAYERS MAY GIVE BATTLE

Blythe Desperadoes Between Two Fires on Bleak Desert

GALMIS, Cal., Dec. 3.—Sheriff Willson of Riverside county, with men from the detective agency engaged by a bankers' association to run down bank robbers, arrived on a special train from Imperial Junction today to take the trail of the two bandits who robbed the Palo Verde Valley bank at Blythe of $5000 yesterday and killed the cashier, A. W. Bowles.

The two bandits escaped from Blythe on cow ponies and were pursued by a posse of cowboys and residents of Blythe. To reach this place, the nearest railroad point, the bandits have to cross 40 miles of waterless desert and the detectives here say they are sure of soon apprehending the fugitives.

BETWEEN TWO FIRES.

Sheriff Willson believes that the robbers are now between two fires, with his own forces and the detectives in front of them here and the Blythe posse of cow men behind them driving them onward.

Immediately after their arrival here the sheriff's force started into the desert to close in on the advancing bandits, who are heavily armed and are willing to put up a desperate battle for the gold for which they looted the Blythe bank.

Immense Bond Issue For Electric Development

LOS ANGELES, Dec. 3.—Financial operations embracing a bond issue of $50,000,000 and the securing of $14,000,000 new capital from New York, the money to be used in enlarging the Pacific Light & Power Corporation and reconstructing the Los Angeles Railway Corporation, was announced here yesterday as the financial plans of Henry E. Huntington, the dominating head of the two concerns mentioned. The exact nature of the contemplated improvements were withheld, but it is understood that a share of the new capital will be devoted to developing more electric power. It is also asserted that the street railway systems are to be enlarged and a new building constructed to house the offices of Huntington's various industrial enterprises.

Eggs to Scramble Out of Cold Storage

JERSEY CITY, N. J., Dec. 3.—A plan conceived by Mayor Mark M. Fagan, who is also a member of the county tax board, by which it is expected that a few million eggs now in cold storage warehouses in this city will be put on the market, will be made to the tax board that the warehouses are not adequately taxed. Then it is expected the board will order a hearing and direct the warehouse officials to produce their books to show the stock that is on hand and has been carried, and if the law has been violated by storing eggs for a longer period than 10 months. Such action, it is predicted, will show that the warehouses have been taxed far too low and that a lively transference of eggs from Jersey City cold storage plants will result.

SETTLEMENT PLANS A CHRISTMAS TREE

Good Folk Might Assist in Brightening It for Youngsters

The holiday spirit has entered the East Oakland Settlement, where the pretty little curly haired children are busily engaged in sewing upon Christmas gifts for their parents and friends. During the past few days have saved their pennies, nickels and dimes for small contributions for the various members of their family.

Christmas will not be Christmas without presents, the kiddies say, and they will not have a happy Yuletide until the good people of this city open their hearts and their pocket-books to brighten the settlement Christmas tree with toys and necessities for the youngsters, who are looking forward to the Christmas celebration. They are trying to do their part in a small way.

In the past the philanthropic folks of this community generously donated useful articles for the little ones, whose cheerfulness on Christmas morn will depend upon the benevolence of the public.

Boys and girls of the cotton mill district of East Oakland are daily offering prayers for Santa Claus to remember them on Christmas day. That is the day of all days for the children. They say that dear old Santa will not forget them this year. They are planning to welcome him as he descends from the chimney and will appear on the scene heavily laden with dolls, games, baseballs and all the toys that are cherished by the juveniles.

Many clubs affiliated with churches of Oakland annually provide the tots with tokens on Christmas day. The boys and girls receive clothing, wearing apparel of all descriptions. They need garments and have shown appreciation for warm wraps, stockings and shoes.

About 250 young folks attend the classes and clubs of the East Oakland Settlement, which is under the management of a company of society and club women of this city. The settlement is located in the heart of the cotton mill colony at 2230 Denison street.

There are nine women who give their services gratuitously to that institution, where the girls are taught sewing, embroidery, cooking and other useful arts, while the boys are instructed in the manual crafts. The classes are now being attended by 100 pupils.

during the day as well as the children, who are pupils in the public schools.

THE TRIBUNE will receive subscriptions for the East Oakland Settlement by mail or at its business office.

U. S. OFFICIAL IS SAVED FROM DEATH

Niles Nordin Is Rescued After Living for Week on Coffee Grounds

NEAH BAY, Wash., Dec. 3.—Niles Nordin of the United States coast and geodetic survey service is recovering from exposure experienced on Carroll Island in the Pacific off the mouth of Ozeet river, where he was marooned during the terrific storm which swept the coast last week.

A survey of the coast between Cape Platter and Gray's Harbor is being made and six weeks ago Nordin was placed on the island with three week's provisions to make signals. Then the storm came up and the survey steamer was driven off. A week ago Indians notified the marine observer on Tatoush Island they could see distress signals at night from Carroll Island. The revenue cutter Manning was sent to investigate, but was unable to make a landing and returned to Neah Bay for the life saving crew.

The life saving crew, awaiting a hull in the gale, ran in close to the island and threw a line to Nordin, who jumped into the sea and was pulled aboard the lifeboat.

For more than a week while he was on the island in the storm Nordin was without fire and had nothing to eat but coffee grounds.

Mrs. Wagner of St. Louis Tells Queer Story of Domestic Woes.

ST. LOUIS, Dec. 3.—Denying all the allegations in her husband's cross-bill to her suit for divorce and alleging that for ten years he and she had lived in the same house, Mrs. Mildred Wagner declared to reporters at her home that Charles Wagner, secretary of the Banner Bugby Company, had culled the twenty-eight years of their married life for accusations to make against her.

"When people have been married for twenty-eight years," she said, "there are bound to have been unpleasant incidents. A number of these incidents when assembled into a whole might indicate an existence of discord when the contrary was true."

Among Wagner's allegations of indignities were: That his wife had thrown clocks, plates and coffee pots at him.

Her husband's cross-bill, which she destroyed, cost her $100,000 in damages, she said, and she was driving with other men in her phaeton.

"I shall refute every one of these charges in court," Mrs. Wagner said. "I am not afraid of the truth. Practically every one of the things Mr. Wagner charges against me happened many years ago."

Then he could have gone into court and got a divorce from me, and he never tried to do it.

"That matter of the phaeton, for instance, I shall offer testimony in court to show it is not true. It has been thirteen years since we owned a horse and phaeton."

"He charges that he brought a man to our home as a guest and I would not get breakfast for him. That was eighteen years ago, and I was in bed sick at the time; too ill to care for my own family."

"Mr. Wagner said I stole some of his private documents. That is not true, although I have had the documents and now know where they are. They were lost by his stenographer and I have copies of newspapers in which the advertisements for them were brought to our home by the finder. I found them to contain matter of vital interest to me and I kept them."

"Mrs. Wagner charges that I stole $200 from her purse. We were paying for our home at the time, and she was angry at me because I had some letters he wished me to give him, and declared he would let the house go. One Sunday he left his purse at the house. It contained $205. I took the money, paid the note and offered him the balance, about $90. He told me to keep the money."

"The charges that I destroyed paintings and threw things at my husband are absurd. Anybody would know I haven't strength to throw a clock."

Mrs. Wagner in her divorce suit alleged general indignities, said her husband insulted her in the presence of guests and that he struck her in their son's presence. She said she expected to produce in court 20 letters written to her husband by another woman.

For the last ten years, she said, she and her husband have occupied the same house, but have kept separate apartments and have scarcely exchanged a word, their only communication being between their sons.

her husband earned $200 a month salary and had $2300 dividend-paying shares of stock in a mining company worth $1 a share.

At the time her suit was filed Wagner told reporters that through fault of business concerns, which he was interested in, he had lost three fortunes. His inability to maintain his wife in the same style as when they lived for many years at the Southern Hotel, he declared, was responsible for his domestic troubles.

San Francisco Markets

STOCKTON, Dec. 2.—There was a sensational slump of 5 cents in the price of ranch eggs today on the local Produce Exchange. The decline, the dealers explain, resulted from a heavy incoming shipment of eggs from the north.

SANTA ROSA, Dec. 2.—There was a general slump in prices on the Dairy Produce market today. Ranch eggs were being priced at 40 cents per dozen for firsts and 42 cents for seconds, the lowest quotations in several weeks.
